Riverview Memorials Upset

Vandals Hit Cemetery

A trained crew is due at Riverview Cemetery Thursday or Friday to reset four large monuments weighing 3,000 to 4,000 pounds that were toppled from their bases Monday night or early Tuesday by vandals, who also upset a half a dozen smaller markers and six flower vases.

Malcolm Stenger, cemetery superintendent, said each of the large granite monuments weighs between a ton and a half and two tons. None was broken. The smaller vases and monuments had been reset by Tuesday afternoon.

Police said youthful vandals are suspected. Stenger reported the incident to police shortly before noon yesterday. He said the monuments and vases were toppled sometime after 5 p. m. Monday. The vandals worked in an area where they were screened from view from the blacktop roads that wind through the cemetery, he added.

Resetting the four large monuments probably will cost $100, the superintendent estimated. A monument concern will send its expert workmen to raise the markers with block and tackle and bars.

The monuments and their the two pieces of stone join, they are sealed with a soft lead compound that later hardens and prevents water seepage. The vandals apparently rocked the monuments until they toppled off their bases, police said.

Traffic Plan Delayed At Wellsville

Legislation Tabled By Council Doubt Over Proper Steps

A doubt as to correct procedure stymied passage to create one - way traffic west on Commerce St. between 9th and 15th Sts. for a 90-day trial period during a meeting of Wellsville City Council Tuesday night.

After a motion to suspend the rules and vote on the legislation immediately was defeated, Council ordered the ordinance tabled until the next meeting because several Council members weren't sure whether it was right to disregard the defeated motion and introduce a new one asking that the legislation be given first reading.

However, Clerk Wayne Rose and Councilman Walter Henthorne indicated that there would have been nothing wrong with introducing another motion to pass the legislation on first reading. Henthorne was not present when the motion to suspend the rules was presented.

He said that had he been present when the motion was defeated, he would have moved for first reading.

Councilman Aguin Bowling, who voted against the motion to suspend rules, along with Meryle Kenny and William Stoddard, said he would vote against the entire legislation, because he feels that making traffic one-way on Commerce would not solve the problem.

He added the one - way plan would throw too much traffic into the school district, endangering the lives of children. He said the street should be widened instead.

Councilmen Dwight MacLean, Nunzio Lombardozzi and Paul Todd had voted in favor of the motion to suspend rules.

In other action, Council enacted legislation to prohibit parking on city streets for more than a 48-hour period. This is to give the police department jurisdiction to remove cars from the streets with old license plates and those vehicles police know aren't used regularly. Lombardozzi noted that the manner of enforcement is up to the discretion of the police department.

Council also approved legislation to place a new half-mill levy on the November ballot for

Democrats Get Wilkins Appeal

Platform Writers Urged To Pledge Rights Law Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil rights leader Roy Wilkins urged Democratic platform writers today to pledge vigorous enforcement of the new civil rights law and give the country a contrast with what he called the "squeamish circumlocution" of the Republican plank.

Wilkins, chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights and secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, declared that "the riots which have shaken several urban communities cannot be condoned." He said they must be understood against a background of deprivation and frustration.

Wilkins' testimony was prepared for the Democratic platform committee as it concentrated on the civil rights issue, considered the most difficult to treat in a plank acceptable to all wings of the party.

A trial balloon floated by some Southern moderates for a compromise statement that might avoid a floor fight appeared to have been shot down when Pierre Pelham, a committee member from Alabama, said Tuesday he could accept nothing less than a call for repeal of the Civil Rights Act.

The Republican platform language that aroused Wilkins' scorn includes a call for "full implementation and faithful execution" of new and old civil rights laws, improvements as needed and any necessary action to ensure the right to vote.

But Wilkins said the slogan, "leave civil rights matters to the states has become the hallmark" of Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate. Goldwater has said he accepts the Republican platform and, as president, would enforce the laws.

Fatal Wreck Occurs Near Beaver Falls

Victims From North Dakota, Cleveland And Brooklyn, N.Y.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)— A convertible shot over a 30-inch-high medial barrier near the Ohio gateway to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Tuesday night and slammed head-on into a station wagon, killing six persons and seriously injuring three others.

A truck driver directing traffic around the wreckage was also injured when hit by a car.

The dead were: Jerry Tinsley, 18, of Cleveland, driver of the convertible, and these passengers in Tinsley's car:

Parnell Lewis Days, 17, Morris D. Lanier, 18, Robert Carl Price, 18, all of Cleveland, and Isaac Reznick, 50, of Brooklyn, N.Y., who police said may have been a hitch - hiker. Another passenger, Kenneth Francis, 15, also of Cleveland, was listed in serious condition at Providence Hospital in Beaver Falls.

The sixth victim was Frank Heinz, 26, of Center, N.D., the driver of the station wagon. His wife, Lenore, 24, was listed in serious condition at the hospital. Their daughter, Kyle, 3, was transferred to Children's Hospital in Pittsburgh in serious condition.

Dr. John W. Colavincenzo, Beaver County coroner, theorized the accident occurred this way:

The eastbound Tinsley car was passing another on a portion of the turnpike that curves slightly upward about eight miles from the Ohio line. The car began fishtailing, went out of control and leaped the 30-inch steel median without touching it. It slammed head-on into the westbound Heinz car.

State police said they did not know the destination of either car. Even the families of the boys in Tinsley's car apparently didn't know.

Young Francis's father, Willie, said in Cleveland that he had no idea his son was out of town.

"He was supposed to come home about 10 o'clock and help me close the drugstore where

Council Gives Approval

Sara Thomas Appointed To Chester Park Board

The appointment of Miss Sara A. Thomas by the Chester City Park Board as a member to fill the unexpired term of John M. Pinney was given formal approval Tuesday night by Chester City Council at a brief meeting in City Hall.

An English teacher at Oak Glen High School, Miss Thomas, 569 Virginia Ave., has been serving as treasurer of the park board since it was organized about five years ago.

The board named her to fill the term of Pinney, expiring Jan. 28, 1969. Pinney resigned several months ago. Miss Thomas will become a full member and serve as secretary-treasurer.

Other members are Harold Dickey, chairman, John Burnquist, Lawrence Cline and Clifford O. Comm. The board has met only informally recently, but plans to get started on formal meetings soon, Dickey reported.

The park board has authority to fill unexpired terms, but City Council must fill any other vacancies with recommendation of Mayor Henry Abrams.

Council met only briefly, opening with a five - minute caucus at 7:30, and adjourning at 8 for another caucus with Atty. Edwin Flowers and Atty. James Jordan, solicitors, on the sewer and water improvements.

Council gave unanimous approval to a request of Lawrenceville Fire Chief Clark Lively that the department's telephone be maintained at City Hall with the Chester department's fire telephone.

Lively explained the action was also requested a few years ago, but it turned out that the Lawrenceville department could not afford the cost of maintaining the phone in City Hall.

Fire telephones of both departments will be answered when the new system is installed by Mrs. Sylvia Bishop, City Hall caretaker.

Council approved the request of the chief on a motion of Don Hissam and second by Charles Kology. Councilman Walter McSwegin was absent.

Mrs. Bishop and her husband, Lester Bishop, street department supervisor, submitted requests for annual vacations from Aug. 31 to Sept. 14. Council approved, asking for a replacement for Mrs. Bishop during her absence.

The Neptune Meter Co. of Philadelphia asked in a letter that its $2,200 check of March 18 on bids for water meters be returned. Council learned it is in the hands of the A. R. Todd Associates, Inc., engineering firm working for the city. A representative said he would inquire and return the check to the concern.

Clerk Roy Cashdollar reported remittances of $1,463.86. Bills of $2,452.08 were ordered paid.

Hearings Postponed

WEIRTON — Hearings have been postponed to Aug. 28 for six adults charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors in the theft of $2,000 or more in savings from the home of Achillas Kyriakodas, 68, a paralyzed immigrant who was residing with a relative. One remains in jail on two charges, and the other five defendants have been released on $500 bond. Police have recovered $1,600.

Fight Brews For Hancock Nomination

Certification of a Democratic candidate for Grant District county commissioner in Hancock County's November general election was delayed another week in developments Tuesday at the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

William C. Graham of Chester emerged the apparent winner of the nomination over Alvin B. Clutter of Chester by 25 votes after officials ruled on 10 ballots that were challenged.

However, Clutter's chances of overtaking Graham's lead were given new life when Atty. Edward A. Zagula of Weirton asked Commissioners James Finley and Jack Evans to rule that May 12 primary ballots cast in Precinct 39 in Weirton not be counted.

Should the Precinct 39 ballots be ruled invalid, Graham would lose 212 votes and Clutter only 139, giving Clutter the nomination by 48 votes.

Atty. Zagula, chairman of the Democratic executive committee and counsel for Clutter, charged that a large manila bag in which the Precinct 39 ballots were placed was not properly sealed with sealing wax and that the poll workers there did not sign their names across the seal as prescribed in the state code.

Zagula also charged the manila bag was torn in two places, and there was no evidence that the poll workers had subscribed to the proper oath.

His request that the Precinct 39 ballots be ruled invalid was made, and Evans and Finley

City To Apply Seal Material On 28 Streets

City crews started work in earnest today on applying seal-coating material to sections of 28 East Liverpool streets that were improved originally with low-cost surfacing in 1962.

The work will be done without expense to the property - owners on all streets which were included in the original low - cost summer surfacing program, Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said.

The cost will be paid out of city income tax revenue. The city has contracted for 25,000 gallons of the liquid asphalt emulsion that will be used to seal the surfaces.

The crew started work Tuesday afternoon, but applied a seal coat to only one lane of a block-long stretch of Michigan Ave. before the project was interrupted by rain.

The work started in East End near the state line and will move westward, Vodrey said. It consists of applying a thin coat of the asphalt material, then a coating of fine slag "chips." The fine slag then is compacted with

Gemini Launching Pad Damaged

Lightning Erases Chance Of 2-Man Orbit In 1964

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A series of lightning bolts which caused considerable damage on the Project Gemini launching pad apparently has erased any possibility of a two-man orbital flight this year.

Officials said the mishap probably means that astronauts Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young will have to wait until early 1965 to make the first tandem flight. They were to take a three-orbit, five-hour space ride in mid-December.

As an electrical storm swept over Cape Kennedy Monday night, several lightning bolts struck the Gemini launching complex. They damaged systems in a Titan 2 rocket on the pad and in the ground support equipment.

It was the first recorded incidence of lightning damage to a rocket in the 14-year history of the cape. All rocket gantries here are supposed to be lightning-proof.

The Titan 2 was being groomed to boost a fully equipped spacecraft, which was not on the pad, on a 2,000-mile ballistic flight to test all systems, the re-entry protective heat shield and recovery techniques.

The launching, the final unmanned shot before the Grissom-Young flight, had been scheduled for Oct. 6.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Tuesday, "The effect on the launch date is not known at this time. But some equipment replacement, launch complex revalidation and systems retest will be required."

"The over-all effect of this condition may result in a delay of the first manned flight into next year," the agency said.

A spokesman said the lightning caused no visible damage — that apparently all of it took the form of short-circuits and other electrical-type damage to delicate components.

U.S. Orbits Satellite To TV Olympic Games

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Syncom 3 communications satellite, intended to relay television pictures of the October Olympic Games in Japan quickly to North America and Europe, rocketed into a preliminary orbit today en route to a planned stationary post high above the Pacific Ocean.

Officials were cheered by the early success of the mission. But the "Olympic Star' satellite must execute a number of complex maneuvers in the next 12 days to shift its orbit and reach its goal as the world's first truly synchronous — stationary — satellite.

While Syncom 3 is a research vehicle and television is not its main job, successful intercontinental transmission of Olympic pictures would be the most dramatic performance so far by communications satellites.

U.S., Japanese, Canadian and European interests plan to spend nearly $1 million to demonstrate Olympic television capability with Syncom 3. Practically none of the transmission will be live, primarily because of time differences, and ironically, Canadian and European viewers probably will see more

$100,408 Low Bid On Bridge

State Project Due At Hammondsville

Earl H. Newell of Columbiana has filed the apparent low bid with the Ohio Department of Highways for construction of a new bridge over Yellow Creek in Hammondsville and paving a section of State Route 213.

Newell bid $100,408 for the job, against the state estimate of $111,370. Bids were opened Tuesday in Columbus.

The Division 11 highway headquarters in New Philadelphia has already purchased right-of-way and has cleared some brush for the project in Hammondsville.

A two-lane structure will be built across the small creek on Route 213, replacing the present one-lane bridge. The service station of William Burton was razed to make way for the raising of approaches to the bridge, along with a couple of dwellings.

Length of the Route 213 paving improvement will be one and a half miles.

Deaths and Funerals

Sister Of Area Man Claimed

Services were held this morning for Mrs. Stella Levada Starkey, 77, of Proctor, W. Va., sister of Homer Morgan of New Cumberland, who died Sunday at the Wetzel County Hospital in New Martinsville.

The rites were held at the Harmer Funeral Home at Shinnston. Burial was in the Masonic Cemetery.

Mrs. Starkey also leaves two sons, four daughters, 32 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Infant Renfro

Graveside services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Renfro of Georgetown, who was stillborn Tuesday morning at City Hospital, were held this afternoon at the Mill Creek Hill Cemetery, Hookstown.

The Rev. C. Donald Vogel, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Chester, officiated.

The Arner Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton holds the contract for the asphalt, which is delivered in rail tankcar lots to the T. K. Roofing Co. siding at Chester. At Chester, the material is heated to 250 degrees and then pumped into the city's distributor truck.

A seal coat is used primarily to close surface cracks, preventing damage by water, ice and frost. Vodrey said regular seal-coating of the low - cost streets every two years eventually will make them first class thoroughfares.

He pointed out the same procedure has been used on the secondary streets in Liverpool and St. Clair Townships for many years.

Tokyo Males Wander About In Underwear

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese authorities are trying to discourage Tokyo males from wandering about publicly in their underwear for fear of the effect it might have on the tourist trade.

The problem has arisen because of a heat wave and the excellent air conditioning at the recently refurbished Tokyo International Airport.

Reports say hundreds of men have been flocking to the airport terminal clad only in underpants, undershirts and sandals. There they relax in the cool lounges, oblivious to the stares of foreigners.

of the film relayed by Syncom 3 than will those in the United States.

The three-stage TAD—thrust augmented Delta — rocket barreled away from Cape Kennedy at 7:15 a.m. (EST) to propel the drum-shaped satellite into the "transfer" orbit — a great egg-shaped route ranging from about 700 to 22,300 miles above the earth and requiring about 11 hours for each pass.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported 30 minutes after launching that all three rocket stages had performed as planned and the 145-pound package of communications instruments was on course and sending strong signals.

Syncom 3's next hurdle will be reached about 28 hours after launching—about 11 a.m. Thursday—when it reaches the 22,300-mile-high point of its orbit for the third time. Then a small rocket is to be fired by ground command to jockey the satellite out of its wideswinging transfer path into a circular orbit about 22,300 miles up.

This is to occur above Sumatra. Then ground monitors, commanding small payload jets by radio, plan to guide Syncom 3 delicately for more than 10 days to the desired mid-Pacific position. The jets are to arrest it there.

The payload's final target area is a point 22,300 miles above the intersection of the Equator and the International Date Line. It would appear to hover motionless there because it would be traveling at a speed matching that of the earth's rotation below.

Although two or three hours of Olympic television film is to be sent from Japan to the United States in the course of the 15-day Olympic period, U.S. viewers probably will see very little of it. However, Canadian and European broadcasters plan to make extensive use of the film after speeding it by microwave and by jet plane from the California reception point to Montreal and Hamburg, Germany.

The National Broadcasting Co. purchased exclusive U.S. territorial rights to Olympic telecasts and plans to use mostly film flown from Tokyo. Because most of the action will occur while Americans are asleep, only the opening ceremonies on Oct. 10 are planned to be televised live via Syncom 3.

Under the NBC contract, other U.S. broadcasting interests will be allotted 9 minutes a day —in 3-minute segments — for showing Olympic film. Some of this may be relayed by Syncom 3.

Jaycee Board Endorses City's School Bond Issue

The Board of Trustees of the East Liverpool Jaycees voted formal endorsement and support of the $3,380,000 bond issue for school construction at a meeting Tuesday night in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The 13-member board approved motion of Robert W. Conroy, vice president, and second by Keith Goodman, to "enthusiastically" support the school bond issue after hearing an address by Supt. Paul H. Blair.

Expenditure of funds to actively engage in a campaign for passage of the bond issue to finance construction of a new high school and three elementary buildings was also approved.

The building program would be financed by the bond issue and a $990,958 interest-free loan from the state, Supt. Blair explained to the board. It will be decided in a special election Sept. 15.

Supt. Blair cited the importance of the proposal to the future education of youth in East Liverpool.

Dale Kidd, Jaycee president, explained the organization as a whole has not had an opportunity to consider endorsement of the bond issue, because no regular meetings are slated until after the special election.

"We hope, however, that as the elective body of the organization, we will have the support of all Jaycees," he said.

Supt. Blair told the board that the East Liverpool Teachers Association plans to purchase 2,500 bumper stickers supporting the bond issue and building program.

Earlier, the Lions Club went on record supporting the bond issue.

In other business, the board approved two new projects of the ways and means committee — sale of devices to speed the igniting of charcoal in grills, and sale of stadium cushions.

Plans were discussed for the Jaycee entertainment on the Labor Day weekend. Bob Bickle is chairman of the boat regatta on the Ohio River Sept. 6, and Gary McCoy chairman of the Labor Day "coffee break" for motorists. Thousands watched the regatta last year.

The Jaycees will also sponsor a professional wrestling show Sept. 11.

Next meeting of the board is Sept. 14, with a regular meeting of the group set Sept. 28.

South Side Group Will Hear Coach

Fred Milanovich, head football coach at South Side High School, will be the guest speaker at a coverdish dinner of the auxiliary of the South Side Athletic Club Saturday evening.

Awards will be presented to the winning teams in the Junior and Senior Divisions of the South Side Hot Stove League. The event will be held at 6 p.m. at Chester City Park.

At the auxiliary's meeting, Friday night, Mrs. Mary Schladen was named to fill the secretary's post. Lunch was served 10 by the Shippingport district group. Mrs. Bevy Wright, president, presided. Next regular meeting will be Sept. 21 at the Hookstown fire hall.

Ferro Sets Projects In Australia, Brazil

Capital expenditures totaling $200,000 have been authorized by the Board of Directors of Cleveland - based Ferro Corp. for property acquisitions in Australia and Brazil.

This will provide for future plant expansion requirements of the company's subsidiaries in those countries, the board said.

Ferro is a large manufacturer of porcelain enamel frit, enameling furnaces and fiberglas and operates facilities in East End.

delayed ruling until Prosecutor Floyd R. Tarr furnishes his opinion.

Atty. Don Donell, assistant prosecutor, reviewed several test cases in West Virginia on such rulings, but said he would have to research before his opinion could be offered. He said the issue appears to be based on whether the sealing of the ballots and signatures on the seal is a mandatory or directory act.

Atty. Frank A. Pietranton, representing Graham, incumbent county commissioner, said the reason the manila bag was torn was because it was overloaded with ballots, and had to be "stuffed" into the ballot can. He said there was no objection to the Precinct 39 ballots when the recount was held in June.

Claimed In Fire

CLEVELAND (AP)—Authorities believe careless smoking caused the fire that killed Mary O'Brien in a hotel on the east side. Fire Chief Michael Masterson said the woman, a patron of the hotel, apparently fell asleep Tuesday night in an upholstered chair while smoking in her room on the second floor of the five-story hotel.

Sixteen members were present. The Rev. C. Donald Vogel is president.

A Problem Demanding Attention

Thanks to the success of a new enterprise, there's a recurring traffic problem on E. 4th St. between Washington and Market Sts. that seems to merit investigation.

It's the congestion that crops up regularly when the tellers' windows get particularly busy at the new First National Auto Bank.

Patrons waiting in autos to turn into the bank's driveway have no other place to go, so they halt in the E. 4th St. traffic lanes — mostly notably in the westbound lane. Oncoming traffic generally prevents other drivers from passing the halted cars. That's when the congestion develops.

Once the line of waiting traffic backs up about a half a block, the intersection of E. 4th and Washington St. is clogged. From that point, the congestion can spread rapidly.

The fact the new drive-in bank is so successful that it can be blamed for traffic jams must be a satisfaction — in a backhanded way — to the bank's management. We hope the success continues. It's a unique service that was unavailable previously in the community.

But undoubtedly the ingenuity of city officials and the bank management can be combined to work out a solution to the traffic problem that will be mutually satisfactory.

We hope Council's street committee will make an investigation and seek a solution, with the cooperation of the bank's management, Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey and Police Chief A. J. Radeschi.

Maintenance Needed

A flagpole, field artillery and baskets of flowers placed as memorials to the war dead do much to create a pleasant spot at the junction of Route 45 and Route 7 in the east end of Wellsville.

But the small plot has become littered with papers and the grass needs cutting. If the tract is to be an eyeful of beauty instead of an eyesore, a little maintenance should be undertaken without delay.

Desecration Of A Grave

The desecration of a grave is an act that no community can tolerate.

When the desecration occurs in wholesale fashion, such as the overturning of monuments and vases at Riverview Cemetery, the community can only hope that those responsible are taught a lesson through the law that they will always remember.

Police suspect that young vandals, probably with a twisted sense of humor, were responsible for the depredations at Riverview.

The vandals evidently forgot — or didn't care — that they were intruding on the last resting place of an individual who was near and dear to others in the community. Each marker represents an investment of hundreds of dollars and each well-tended plot testifies to the regard in which the person buried there is held by his relatives.

Professionals must be called in to right the monuments and restore the serenity of the cemetery.

We hope the young ghouls responsible for the vandalism now realize the full consequences of their acts and end up paying the penalty provided by law.

Needed: A 'Carry Nation'

Because a formal complaint was filed, another raid has been staged on one of Hancock County's gambling joints.

This time it was the Cactus Bar which was hit again, but only because one of the players charged he was "cheated".

The bigger spots, like Paddock, still are going full blast unmolested. Apparently they're running an honest dishonest game.

About all raids such as that at the Cactus Bar do is place another official entry on court records to the effect that illegal gambling still is flourishing. Gaming equipment was hauled away, but if the usual pattern is followed new equipment will be moved in and players and operators shortly will be back at the old stand.

Gambling goes on its merry way with only a few appearing to be really concerned about the situation—and they can do little about it since those really in a position to crack down continue to be indifferent about the matter. The indifference extends all the way to Charleston, just as it did in the previous administration.

The whole thing is frustrating for those who would like law and order to prevail.

Possibly another "Carry Nation" might be the answer. What "Carry" did to the old-time saloons her present-day counterpart could do to the gambling tables.

It's a long shot, and may sound fantastic, but with the calloused indifference of too many West Virginia officials toward gambling, it appears the only hope for badly-needed action.

No Other Way To Do It

It is by no means certain that Cypriot President Mararios knows this, but there is no other way out for his new republic but to cling to the United Nations. President Johnson has given him the best possible advice.

It is by no means certain that tireless critics of the United Nations ever will know it, but there is no other way out for any of this chaotic world's emerging republics. They must rely on international cooperation.

Their only hope of survival is creation of a balance among already established nations that will keep them from being eaten alive while they are small and helpless.

Their only hope of changing from protectorates and colonies to independent powers is through the protection of the United Nations; witness, the Republic of Israel and the Republic of Congo.

INEVITABLY, the process of achieving national independence is fraught with disorder and interference by mischief-making nations, as it was in the instance of the breakaway from Britain of the American colonies. But even then other nations protected the weak for their own reasons—selfish reasons.

France protected the American colonies to spite Britain. Subsequently, France itself was capable of conspiring against the new nation by setting up a monarchy in Mexico with a French king on the throne.

And it should not be forgotten that the U.S. Monroe Doctrine, which supposedly barred extension of Old World political systems in the New World was proposed by George Canning, British foreign minister, and enforced by the British navy.

The principle of protecting new nations from the plots of their cynical neighbors is not new. But the practice, until the United Nations was built on the wrecked hopes of the League of Nations, never had been regularized.

IT STILL isn't impervious to the plots and conspiracies of jealous and embittered governments. The United Nations is only a feeble and precarious beginning.

But it is the only beginning there is; no other hope for Cyprus exists — not intervention by Greece, by Turkey, by the Soviet Union, Britain, or the U.S. fleet in the Mediterranean.

Whatever can be done to protect the Republic of Cyprus must be done jointly by all nations, or surely there will be a falling out that will destroy everything the Cypriots want to save and might even destroy a large part of the world, too.

What Next?

By Truman Twill

If you have wondered how it would feel to be a pheasant the first day of pheasant season, a rabbit the first day of rabbit season etc., there is no lack of frames of reference.

Imagine you are a household germ marked for extinction by Madison Avenue.

Or dental decay, also in the process of being routed by Science, with Madison Avenue's help.

If you are a capitalist or a staunch defender of the capitalist system, the Communists have given you a foretaste of what it feels like to face a threat of extermination. It's not an uncommon experience.

LIBERALS learned how it feels to have your number go to the top of the most hunted list during the Republican National Convention this year, as did all columnists and commentators whose first loyalty is not to the preservation of the elephant in U.S. politics.

Many years ago the ordinary housefly (Musca domestica) found out what a terrible thing it is to be marked for extinction. Houseflies died by the trillions as savage humans responded to the admonition Swat That Fly!

There is nothing mankind cannot get rid of: The list is endless:

Mosquitoes, Hiroshima, tuberculosis, the old oaken bucket, bison, front porches, the noble red man, Nagasaki, modesty among nubile females, 5-cent coffee;

Elms, chestnuts, legible penmanship, U.S. scholars who can read Greek, Aeolian harps, hand-cranked ice cream freezers, the clippity-clop of the milkman's horse, household help who "lived in," the convenience of high-button shoes;

Girls who counted on the creaminess of their fudge to catch a steady beau, people who did not think it was funny to be asked, "Have you read any good books lately?"

KIDS WHO were glad to mow a whole lawn and trim around the walks and flower beds for a buck, a variety of job opportunities for the young at heart and strong of back;

Family evenings around the old upright piano, bankers who dressed like men of distinction, village halfwits, marshmallow and wiener roasts, smelling salts —

All these things are gone. And soon to join them is the household germ, which has been a family fixture from time immemorial. Doodeloo, H. Germ. Who knows? Maybe I'll be next.

Something New In Party Politics

By DAVID LAWRENCE

President Johnson apparently has given permission to the heads of several governmental agencies dealing with foreign policy to involve themselves in partisan politics.

David Lawrence

Never before has a president from either party allowed a secretary of state and other high officials—including now the American ambassador to the United Nations—to become partisan exponents of foreign policy during a presidential political campaign.

Thus, on Monday of this week, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, Ambassador Adlai Stevenson and William C. Foster, director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, made political speeches before the Democratic platform committee in Washington. They participated actively in the formal meeting held for the purpose of writing the party platform which is to be submitted for adoption at the Democratic national convention at Atlantic City next week.

Mr. Rusk discussed, for example, the subject of control of nuclear weapons, and spoke of "reckless deeds and words." The news dispatches reported that he was rebutting Sen. Goldwater's comments.

MR. McNAMARA gave a glowing and lengthy report on the fulfillment of the pledges made by the Kennedy-Johnson administration in 1960. He pointed out the deficiencies in defense found when the Democrats took over in 1961 and enumerated the "vast power" which now has been "placed at the disposal of the President" along with "the means to control it." He concluded:

"The awesome responsibility to unleash such force, I believe, can rest only on the highest elected official in this country—the president of the United States."

Mr. Foster of the disarmament agency criticized the Republican platform for its failure to appreciate efforts that have been made to ban nuclear weapons. He said the platform showed "little recognition" of the need to continue disarmament negotiations, and made a sarcastic comment on "defoliation."

This was an obvious reference to a reported statement which Sen. Goldwater did not make. He did speak of various suggestions as to how the supply lines through the jungles on the borders of North Viet Nam could be blocked by use of certain nuclear weapons but he himself did not recommend that any of this be done.

AMBASSADOR STEVENSON said that the "American people have legitimate cause for concern if the bipartisan commitment of the United States to the United Nations Charter should become a matter for partisan debate in this country." He then openly commented on the Republican convention platform, said it "seemed to deplore that we weren't involved in a colder war," and criticized other parts of the Republican platform.

All this is something brand new in party politics. None of these high officers of the government had offered to testify before the Republican platform committee, nor were they requested to do so, as it had been assumed they wanted to stay out of politics.

Individual Republican members of Congress have asked the State Department at different times for information, such as "position papers," on various subjects, but in reply they have been given copies of public speeches previously delivered by departmental officials.

Political platforms often discuss foreign policy and criticize the opposite party's viewpoint. This is far different from a direct participation by a secretary of state or secretary of defense in the drafting of a platform or in attempting to influence the writing of its planks.

The secretary of defense is head of the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, whose members are not allowed to engage in politics.

ONE REASON for this historic forbearance is that foreign policy and national defense have always been held up to be nonpartisan. The secretary of state isn't supposed to represent just his own political party, but both parties.

Ambassador Stevenson, in addressing the United Nations, for instance, doesn't speak merely on behalf of the Democratic administration or the Democratic party but presumably for all Americans. Presumably, too, Republicans as well as Democrats have a stake in the nation's defenses.

It's most unusual, therefore, to see a secretary of state and a secretary of defense testifying before a convention's platform committee. The candidates for the presidency, of course, and certain members of the Cabinet who deal with domestic issues usually make campaign speeches, but it has been a tradition for some time that the secretaries of state and defense should keep out of partisan politics, because they deal with international relations.

Foreign policy and national defense are bound to be discussed in the coming campaign. But there are plenty of Democrats on Capitol Hill who can deliver barbs and innuendoes and outright attacks aimed at the opposition party without involving the State Department or the Defense Department in the partisan political game.

"I Must Be Coming Down With Something. I Feel Great!"

Italian Carabinieri War On The Mafia

By VICTOR RIESEL

PALERMO, Sicily

Angry and courageous carabinieri officials here are doing what appears to be impossible back in the U.S. — cracking the murderous Mafia, known in the United States as the Cosa Nostra.

Victor Riesel

The carabinieri are especially irritated because our government insists on deporting Italian-born, but U. S.-bred leaders of the American crime syndicates to Italy. As an example, the police point to U.S. pressure on the Rome authorities to accept Chicago's suave, disdainful Capone era hoodlum, Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, one of the protectors of Chicago labor racketeers.

The Italians ask why we dump our gangsters on their country instead of imprisoning them. The carabinieri ask privately what political influence the thugs have in their home states which keeps them out of prison.

There is the impression here that the U.S. coddles its toughest gangsters instead of battling them as Italy has done for the past 14 months in the first successful drive against the killer "Honored Society."

ESPECIALLY EFFECTIVE is an Italian law which gives the carabinieri and the courts the right to move a Mafia chief or suspect from his home here or in smaller Sicilian communities to far - off tiny villages where the Mafioso live in isolation and can be observed daily by local police.

Since last February at least 60 such secret society members have been sent more than 500 miles from their home towns. Most of them now live in northern Italy. There they must exist on less than $1 a day. They cannot accept gifts or receive visitors.

They cannot go to bars, movie houses, public gatherings, mix with crowds, participate in local politics or meet with groups numbering more than a few persons. They must be in their quarters by nightfall and cannot leave the area without permission.

The carabinieri disclose that no Mafia chief is too big for their dragnet. They have even exiled the man they believe to be the don of dons, the leader of the entire Sicilian Mafia and therefore the man who has had direct links with the American Cosa Nostra for decades. He is Giuseppe Genco Russo, who has lived under a respectable facade for years in the small Sicilian town of Mussomeli. Evidence of his Mafia link is in our Pentagon files as well as in carabinieri hands.

IT'S KNOWN to but a few that he was the Mafia's second in command back in July 1943 when our troops landed in Sicily. His chief then was Calogero (Don Calo) Vizzini, the leading citizen of Villalba. He headed the entire Sicilian Mafia. Therefore our military people contacted him in a successful effort to gain help in an assault on the combined Nazi and still-loyal Fascist armies. This gave Don Calo great power. When he died some years after the war, his power went secretly to Russo.

During the Don Calo - Russo reign, the Mafia murdered hundreds of Sicilians with machine-gun fire, lethal clubbings and midnight drops into abandoned mine shafts.

At least 105 policemen were killed by the Mafia, to the carabinieri's definite knowledge, between the war's end and June 30, 1963.

Towards the end of that period the Mafia began using plastic bombs planted in fancy Alfa Romeo sports cars to kill its victims. Finally two such explosions in and near Palermo killed 10 police officers and the government decided to crack down.

It has. More than 1,000 Mafioso have been told privately their day of terror and control of unions is over, though they still can inflict damage. In addition to the exile treatment, the courts have been eschewing the old respect for "honor killings."

SOME MONTHS ago 21 Mafioso were sentenced to terms ranging from 26 years to 20 months for murder or associating with known criminals.

Just the other day, another 62 were sent to prison and exile. This show of strength by the courts here and by the police who were aroused by the murder of their colleagues has begun to crack the legendary "Omerta" — which means silence on pain of death.

Typical of the smashing of "Omerta" is the action of the "Black Widow" — Mrs. Serafina Battaglia-Leale. Dressed in a long black dress and a black handkerchief covering her head and most of her face, she took the witness stand to reel off name after name in vengeance against the Mafioso who killed her husband.

Defying "Omerta" she has sent most of the 30 men involved in the killing to prison. There are other such cases.

THE ITALIANS realize they are taking extreme action through their law of exile and tough sentencing as well was with the revocation of driving licenses, gun permits and through constant surveillance of suspects. But they say that the time has come to take Sicily out of bondage. They say to any question raised on legal rights that it is simply a matter of writing new laws. They ask if it is better to have a Chicago where more than 950 men have been killed by the Cosa Nostra since the '20s.

And they say they are determined to stop the growth of American - type rackets, formerly unknown in Italy, such as muscling in on the distribution of vegetables, the waterfront, pinball machines, construction and the smuggling of narcotics.

At least, say the carabinieri, if we don't approve of their methods, we might have the good grace not to send them our criminals.

Barry Won't Be Spared

By James Marlow

Rock 'im and sock 'im and belt 'im every chance we get.

This clearly seems the Johnson administration's policy against Sen. Barry Goldwater in the presidential campaign which, before it even starts, promises to be the roughest, toughest in memory.

Goldwater didn't spare President Johnson's feelings when he called him a "phony." Johnson and some of his top aides have already set the pattern of not sparing Goldwater's.

One prime example: this week's performance by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara at the Democrats' hearings on the platform they are trying to stitch together.

Another example: Johnson's blazing attack on Goldwater, one of the first personal assaults he has made since becoming president.

Last week Goldwater criticized this country's defense program: "Under our present leadership, with its utter disregard for new weapons, our deliverable nuclear capacity may be cut down by 90 per cent in the next decade."

The Defense Department promptly fired back that this statement of the Republican presidential candidate was "without foundation," was "contrary to the facts" and was "totally false."

McNamara followed this up in his personal appearance before the platform committee.

"Let me assure you that our strategic forces are and will remain in the 1960s and 1970s sufficient to insure the destruction of both the Soviet Union and Communist China under the worst imaginable circumstances accompanying the outbreak of war," McNamara said.

"There should be no doubt about this in the mind of any American. There is none in the minds of our enemies."

Then he unloaded a mountain of statistics to show this country not only is superior to the Communist world in weaponry — and will continue so — but that it is prepared for any kind of war, big or little.

He called American defenses an "aggregation of force without parallel in human history."

All this will probably not discourage Goldwater from future criticisms. But, judging from the speed and magnitude of Mcnamara's response, plus that of Johnson himself, the administration apparently is set to smash into Goldwater from now on.

Last week Goldwater told a news conference that in dealing with the Southeast Asia crisis Johnson seemed to give military commanders authority to use the "whole inventory" of American weapons. The "whole inventory," of course, would have to include nuclear weapons.

Johnson himself, in telling the nation Aug. 4 that he had authorized American carrier-based planes to hit North Viet Nam PT boat centers, explained he had ordered only "limited action."

And the campaign hasn't even started.

Miss Lillian Schroeder was named chairman of committee for a school program on the effects of smoking. Other members of the committee were appointed but they were not present to verify if they would serve.

The group decided to continue the essay contest for seventh, eighth and ninth graders on the subject of "Careers In Health."

The County Health Department has sponsored it in the past and awards were given each year at the fair, but the department dropped it and the health and safety council will assume its continuance.

Franis Bezdek of near Signal, president, presided and 18 members attended.

Mayor Of Rogers To Be Speaker In School Case

Mayor Glenn Rhodes of Rogers was designated as spokesman during a meeting of Village Council Tuesday night to represent Rogers parents at a special meeting of the Beaver Board of Education tonight at 8 in the public school concerning the question of pupil transportation that was raised at a board meeting Monday night.

Council members and a large delegation of parents will accompany Mayor Rhodes to the meeting planning a protest and discussion against the ruling by the school board that for lack of funds any student residing a mile or less from the Rogers School must walk to classes or provide his own transportation.

Rogers sources said no action will be taken until after results of tonight's meeting are determined.

Rep. Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon was present at the Council meeting, along with 35 parents and several children. Rhodes' appointment as spokesman was the only action taken.

Salem School Levy Revised

The Salem Board of Education filed with the County Election Board Tuesday afternoon a revised version of a resolution submitting a 2½-mill levy at the general election — replacing prior legislation that ran into a snag on a question of legality.

The revised resolution, enacted by the Salem board Monday, says the funds produced by the levy will be used for the purpose of "providing funds to be used for replacement of the Fourth St. School, expanding elementary building facilities, expansion and acquisition of sites and other educational facilities."

The original resolution contained one phrase which the Election Board questioned. In the purpose for which the funds were to be used, it said the money would be utilized for "other educational facilities as the changing needs of the schools and the fluctuations of the community population dictates."

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the Election Board, advised the Salem school board he feared the original resolution was not "in keeping with the statute." He said the office of Secretary of State Ted W. Brown supported his opinion.

Advised of the Election Board's action, the Salem board then enacted the new resolution seeking a ballot place. At the same time, it rescinded the prior resolution.

No Gambling In County? No Stamps!

Columbiana County is not on the list of 19 counties in northern Ohio where 57 federal gambling stamps have been issued since July 1, according to the Internal Revenue Service records in Cleveland.

Apparently, countians are reluctant to file early. The county had 19 of the $50 stamps last year.

It is believed, however, that the county will make the list when new applications for the federal stamps are processed. Some operators of coin-operated gambling devices have been known to delay filing applications until the "first wave" of publicity over the list of new gambling stamps has subsided.

Federal gambling stamps sold by the IRS are not a license to operate wagering rackets, said an IRS spokesman. The tax law makes numbers operations and all other kinds of gambling rackets subject to federal prosecution if they are carried on without the stamps, the spokesman added.

Neighboring Jefferson County tops the list in Eastern Ohio with 20 stamps, all in Steubenville. Belmont County shows 11. Five counties show only one stamp each, Stark, Lorain, Erie and Ashtabula.

A Turnpike official said that the previous high death toll for a single accident on the Turnpike was five, in a crash about 10 years ago before the medial divider was installed.

In January, 1963, six persons were killed on another highway where it crosses over the Turnpike near Philadelphia. The worst pevious crash on the pike itself in recent years was on Dec. 30, 1963, when four persons were killed in a two-car collision near the Harrisburg - West Interchange.

upkeep and repairs to the floodwall. The half-mill levy will raise approximately $5,000 per year for a five-year period.

It was reported that the floodwall fund, now supported by a separate half-mill levy, is $1,297 in the red. At least $4,000 is needed to repair the electric motors and additional money is needed for the pumps.

Mrs. Mary Rahter, Council president, read a petition from several Wellsville residents in the area around the railroad crossing on 18th St., opposing proposed installation of electric signals and removing the watchman, contending it would endanger the lives of several school children.

Mrs. Rahter noted, however, that the proposal for installation of the signals which Pennsylvania Railroad officials said would be filed with her sometime this week, had not reached her hands. She said no action could be taken on the petition until the proposal is officially made before Council.

Mayor William Daugherty said he has learned that the installation of such signals would cost approximately $30,000 and under law the city would bear part of the costs. He added the residents fear the safety of their children because the youngsters could easily crawl under the signal gates when they are down. Now the watchmen are always on hand to aid the children in crossing the tracks, he said.

Mayor Daugherty pointed out, however, that an arrangement could be made with school officials to have someone at the crossing to help children across should the signals be installed.

Mrs. Rahter added she has read reports from other cities that the electric signals are safer for the children than having them helped across the tracks by watchmen.

In submitting his monthly City Planning Commission report, Mayor Daugherty said that Pennsylvania Railroad officials told commission members that the railroad would "hold up its end of the bargain" and pay for the blacktopping of the 10-foot strip, five feet each way from the center of the tracks at the Lisbon St. crossing. This agreement by railroad officials is in co-operation with the Lisbon St. pavement project slated to begin in about three weeks.

In other commission business, Mayor Daugherty said that in a meeting with Columbiana County commissioners it was decided that the county would aid in the renovation of the bridge on Route 7 at the west end of town.

Daugherty disclosed that the Health Board has agreed to see to it that the debris from railroad cars along the tracks will be cleaned up. He said that residents along the tracks have been complaining for a long time.

At a meeting with American Legion Post 70, Daugherty said that Legion members disclosed they are planning to construct a basketball and volleyball court behind the post home. Daugherty added that the city will aid in construction costs. The court will be blacktopped and lighted and can be converted into use for ice-skating.

Mrs. Rahter read a letter from the police department, asking her to appoint two Council members to the Police Pension Board, which she said she will do soon.

MacLean said he would like to meet with Mayor Daugherty, Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare and Police Chief John Hephner sometime soon concerning the upkeep and policing of parking meters.

Henthorne reported the stop sign taken down when the Post Office was built at 11th and Main Sts. has not been put back up. The matter was referred to the street and light committee.

Auditor Edgar S. Davidson's report showed a balance of $106,624.13 and the report of Treasurer Tom Grafton showed a balance of $77,204.88. Todd said that the low balance in the auditor's report was because the real estate taxes haven't come in yet.

Mayor Daugherty gave opening prayer.

Coach Lou Klein of the Chicago Cubs began his playing career with Daytona Beach in 1940. He hit .348 and the next year hit .367 for Columbus, Ohio.

HOW TO TAKE A BITTER MEDICINE

Most medicines today are so pleasantly flavored that they really taste good. Children's medicines are so well liked, as a rule, that they must be stored out of their reach, otherwise the kids will take too much.

But, there are a few whose taste may not please you. Then, just take an ice cube and rub it gently on your tongue for about a minute. Like magic, your taste will be temporarily lessened and even the bitterest of medicines will not be unpleasant.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Mrs. Lynch, the former Miss June Carlotta Singleton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Singleton of the Midland-Fairview Rd., and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Lynch of Youngstown.

The Rev. S. P. Glass performed the double - ring ceremony the evening of Aug. 1 at the St. Andrews African Methodist Episcopal Church in Youngstown. The altar was banked with potted arrangements of ferns and palms with white candles in chapel candelabras.

Mrs. Beverly Pulliam of Youngstown played the prelude organ music and Lorane Jones, also of Youngstown, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of white silk organza over satin, trimmed in embroidered lace. The empire waistline which tapered to a princess fit, ended in a full chapel train. A forward - tilt petal cluster held her bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and white orchids.

The bride's mother chose a dusty rose lace sheath with pink accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in an old rose lace and organza dress.

Douglas Little of Boston, was best man and ushers were Kenneth Carey and Roland Duke, cousin of the bride, both of Youngstown, Bruce Singleton, brother of the bride, and Paul Bacon of Chicago.

A reception followed at McGuffy Center in Youngstown. The bridal table was centered with a four - tier cake topped with a plastic vase with an arrangement of ivy, which was used in other decorations. Aides were Mrs. Olla Tate, Mrs. Ann Tate and Mrs. Dorothy Paige.

The bride, a 1960 graduate of Midland High School, received a bachelor of arts degree in music education from Westminster College at New Wilmington June 1. Her husband, a graduate of the Ohio University School of Engineering in 1962 is stationed at Truax Air Force Base in Madison as a civil engineer. Orioles Hold Lead Of 1½

Reds Deal G-Men Loss; Bucs Beaten

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

If you see it Al Dark's way, the San Francisco Giants were beaten in the first game of their vital home stand by three arms.

Dark, whose Giants are trying to overhaul National League-leading Philadelphia, wasn't too happy about the job done by Jim O'Toole's left arm as the Cincinnati ace pitched the Reds to a four-hit, 1-0 victory Tuesday night.

But what made the San Francisco manager furious was the feeling that the Giants were really given the business by Vada Pinson's waving arms.

The situation that angered Dark arose in the eighth inning of a scoreless duel between O'Toole and Bob Bolin, who had limited the Reds to two hits when they suddenly parlayed a walk, a bunt single, an error and Pinson's arms into the game's only run.

With one out in the eighth, Chico Ruiz walked and reached second on Marty Keough's bunt single. Pinson then lofted a short fly to center, shortstop Jose Pagan brushing into center fielder Willie Mays as the ball dropped between them. That filled the bases and set the stage for the key play.

Frank Robinson hit a grounder to second baseman Hal Lanier, who flipped to Pagan for a force, but the Giants missed the double play when Pagan's relay to first pulled Orlando Cepeda off the bag. Ruiz entered the Reds' dugout after scoring as Dark came storming out of the Giants' dugout.

Dark protested that Pinson had interferred with Pagan's vision by waving his arms as he came into second base, but was overruled. He also was ejected.

The loss cost the Giants an opportunity to gain ground on the front-running Phillies, who maintained their five-game bulge despite a 4-3 loss in 16 innings to the Chicago Cubs.

Joey Amalfitano's two-run double won it for the Cubs in a 5-hour and 23-minute struggle which the first to go past the 12:50 a.m. local time curfew since NL President Warren Giles lifted the time ban to allow all games to be played to a decision.

The St. Louis Cardinals, meanwhile, moved into fourth place as Ray Sadecki posted his 15th victory in a 5-2 triumph over Houston, Milwaukee's Denny Lemaster four-hit the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-1 and Joe Christopher slammed a homer, two triples and a double in the New York Mets' 7-3 walloping of Pittsburgh.

Amalfitano put an end to the Cubs-Phillies' marathon with two out in the 16th when he doubled after Andre Rodgers singled and pinch hitter Dick Bertell walked. The Cubs needed both runs as Philadelphia catcher Clay Dalrymple, who had committed a costly two-base error earlier, homered in the bottom of the 16th.

Dalrymple's error came after Amalfitano had homered in the eighth for the first run off Dennis Bennett, who had allowed only four hits and held a 1-0 lead. Dalrymple fired wild on a high bouncer in front of the plate by Leo Burke, who then scored on a double by Ernie Banks.

The Phillies tied it in the ninth when Alex Johnson, running for Wes Covington, who had singled, stole second and scored on Tony Taylor's single.

Sadecki, 15-9, won his own game in the seventh inning when he tripled and scored the run that broke a 2-2 tie on Lou Brock's single. Sadecki then turned the pitching over to Barney Schultz, who held the Colts in check the rest of the way.

Lemaster, bringing his record to 13-8, got the only runs he needed when batterymate Ed Bailey singled home two in the sixth inning after the Braves loaded the bases on an error, Lee Maye's single and a walk. That tagged Don Drysdale, 13-13, with the loss.

Christopher carried the load for the Mets, driving in three runs and scoring two. Ron Hunt chipped in with three hits in support of Al Jackson, who was tagged for a homer by Gene Freese but extended New York's winning streak to three games.

Dixie Walker, coach with the Milwaukee Braves, is a native of Villa Rica, Ga.

Chisox Put Yankees 4 Games Back

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Orioles are flying again, but they haven't reached Mickey Lolich's altitude.

The Orioles, recovering from two straight losses to the New York Yankees, defeated Boston 5-2 Tuesday night and maintained their 1½-game lead over Chicago in the American League pennant race.

Lolich took time out from a two-week hitch with the Air Force for a three-hit 1-0 shutout over the Los Angeles Angels in the second game of a twi-night doubleheader. The Angels won the opener 1-0 behind the two-hit hurling of Dean Chance.

Stationed at Alpena, Mich., 230 miles from Detroit, Lolich flew in on a C47 especially for the game. He planned to return to Alpena the same way today.

The 24-year-old left-hander stopped over in Detroit long enough to allow three singles in the first inning, then hold the Angels hitless the rest of the way for his 13th triumph against seven defeats.

Lolich also had time to watch the major leagues' leading shutout ace at work. Chance, a remarkable 23-year-old right-hander, shot down the Tigers for his eighth shutout of the season and his second straight two-hit whitewash performance.

The victory was Chance's ninth in a row and gave him a 14-5 record. It also moved him one shutout ahead of Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees and Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Angels' ace, who hasn't lost since July 1, also reduced his earned run average to 1.60.

Elsewhere in the AL, the White Sox nipped the Yankees 4-3 in 10 innings, Minnesota whipped Washington 6-1 and Cleveland downed Kansas City 5-1 after losing 13-9.

Norm Siebern and Boog Powell led the Orioles' attack, each banging a two-run double off Boston starter Bill Monbouquette. Siebern hit his in the three-run fourth inning while Powell connected in the sixth.

Dick Hall preserved Robin Roberts' 11th victory against five defeats. Hall relieved Roberts in the seventh after Ed Bressoud sliced a leadoff single. Hall retired the Red Sox the rest of the way.

The Yankees held a 3-0 lead over the White Sox until Floyd Robinson drove a three-run homer against Al Downing in the eighth. Chicago won the game with two out in the 10th on singles by Al Weis, Pete Ward and Mike Hershberger. Phil Linz tripled twice for New York, driving in one run and scoring two. The loss dropped the Yankees four games behind the Orioles.

Rookie Luis Tiant pitched his fifth complete game, recording his sixth triumph in eight decisions with a four-hitter over the Athletics. Tiant struck out 12.

Rotary Hears Bob McNea

ELHS Eleven To Practice Under Wraps This Season

New Pottery Coach Bob McNea plans to win every football game on the schedule.

He plans a "sound and simple" offense, the same type of defense and discipline without exception for every player.

McNea, 40, a veteran of well over a decade of coaching collegiate and scholastic football, also plans "closed" practice sessions for the Potters.

He disclosed his basic policies on a wide range of football topics in addressing the Rotary Club Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel. He left little doubt of his keen insight into the gridiron sport.

PERHAPS the most significant disclosure was his plan of closing practice drills of the Potters to the public, something new for the most part in East Liverpool. McNea explained his reason in relating a unique story.

It took place during his four years as assistant backfield coach at Northwestern University in the week when the Wildcats were visiting Indiana to open a new stadium.

Northwestern was counting on Indiana to operate a single wing formation and had geared its plan of defense to stop it.

HITCHING a taxi for a ride downtown, McNea began to chat with the driver who happened to take McNea for an Indiana alumnus instead of an enemy.

Turning actor, McNea asked, "Well, how will the Wildcats do against us on Saturday?" The driver replied, "Well, I hope it works." McNea was on the alert. Asked "What will work," the cab driver replied, "The T formation the team has been practicing all week."

Thus, McNea told the club, what was supposed to have been a closely-guarded secret fell into the laps of the Northwestern coaching staff and hasty preparations were made to change the defense. The Indiana surprise that didn't come off was credited with giving Northwestern an edge, and the Wildcats of Ara Parseghian went on to victory.

MCNEA said he has other reasons for closing practice drills besides an attempt to keep plans of the Potters out of enemy hands. One is simply to avoid embarrassment to the players when corrected by the coaches.

"Our offense will be sound and simple, and well-executed," McNea declared, adding it will be "varied enough to attack against stacked defenses."

"Our defense will be strong enough to rely on its own ability without any gadgets, one that will fight for territory," he continued. The kicking game of ELHS will also be sound and simple, and perhaps a little tricky at times, he said.

HE DISCUSSED a list of topics that influence winning teams, with material on hand most important. "Material varies from year to year, and must be used intelligently, adjustments made according to the ability of the players," he said.

Turning to discipline, McNea said: "All organizations must have order, if not there is chaos. It must be the way of the leader, right or wrong, and the boys must have a fear of consequences and not have the impression that someone will understand, my orders must stick for all."

He was United Press Internation's "Coach of the Year" in 1956 when his Mansfield team won nine of 10 games and beat Massillon. McNea also had an 8-1-1 record at Mansfield in 1955, and an 8-0-1 mark at Leetonia in 1954. A graduate of East High School in Cleveland, he has also coached at Cuyahoga Falls and Kent State.

THE POTTER mentor was introduced by Don Burbick, program chairman. Alvin T. Babb, president, presided.

Babb announced the district governor will visit the club in September and a change in the club's annual picnic from Aug. 26 to next Tuesday evening at the YMCA Camp at Pine Ridge.

Guests included Midshipman 1C Patrick Cooper of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, who returned from a summer cruise in the Far East, Dr. K. W. Turner, team physician, and George Schweitzer of Weirton, former Westgate music teacher who will instruct in the fall in Wheeling.

Examination For Grid Officials Scheduled

Examinations are slated Sept. 21 at 7:30 p. m. at East Liverpool High School for prospective football officials, it was announced by Don Hancock, secretary of the Columbiana County Football Officials Association. Hancock said anyone interested may contact him at FU. 6-4569. Grid fans may attend a meeting Aug. 26 at 7 p. m. at the YMCA when the rules will be interpreted, Hancock said.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING — Dean Chance, Angels, posted his second straight two-hit shutout — his eighth shutout of the season — and won his ninth straight game, 1-0, over Detroit in the first game of a doubleheader.

BATTING — Joe Christopher, Mets, slammed a homer, two triples and a double, drove in three runs and scored twice in 7-3 victory over Pittsburgh.

Veteran Glass Nine Wins City Little League Crown

The city's Little League championship went to Veteran Plate Glass who made it two in a row in a playoff series with Burbick's by taking a 10-3 decision Tuesday at Thompson Park.

The Veteran nine broke a 2-2 tie in the third inning with three runs then went on to score five more in the fourth.

Mike (No-Hit) Smith was the winning hurler as he went the distance in pitching Veteran Glass to the championship. Smith scattered four hits and fanned eight batters. He had allowed only two scratch hits for five innings then was touched for a triple by Bruce Diddle and a single in the sixth frame.

Diddle was the losing hurler and was touched for seven hits including a double and two singles by rightfielder Rick Watson.

In the big fourth inning which decided the game, Lockhart walked Watson singled and Randy McVay belted a double to score Lockhart.

Kinsey followed with a walk, Joe Walker doubled to send Watson, McVay and Kinsey across the plate then Smith singled to score Walker.

Vikings May Come Of Age This Season On Pro Grid

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BEMIDJI, Minn. (AP) — This the fourth year for the Minnesota Vikings. The youngest club in the National Football League has begun to jell and is about ready to start making trouble in the Western Conference.

Of the original 36 Vikings, only Grady Alderman, an offensive tackle, remains on the team that Norm Van Brocklin will send into the season.

The Vikings had a 3-11 record their first year, were 2-11-1 in 1962, and last season they were 5-8-1, finishing in a fourth-place tie with Detroit in the tough Western half of the NFL.

Van Brocklin is counting on rookie defensive end Carl Eller of Minnesota, tight end Hal Bedsole of Southern California and, possibly, safety George Rose of Auburn and guard Milt Sunde of Minnesota to crack the regular lineup.

Inexperience in the deep defense may be costly but the Vikings should man a strong front four for pass rushing and should be able to move the ball on the ground with Bill Brown, Tom Mason and Ted Dean, acquired from the Philadelphia Eagles.

As with all pro clubs, the quarterback will tell the story. Van Brocklin is staying with Fran Tarkenton, starting his fourth pro year, as No. 1 with Ron Vanderkelen behind him

Paul Flatley, NFL Rookie of the Year in 1963, is the prime target at split end. If Bedsole, a 6-foot-4 230-pounder, can oust Jerry Reichow from tight end, Reichow probably will alternate with speedy Bob Reed at flanker.

Alderman and Errol Linden are the offensive tackles, Larry Bowie is a fixture at right guard and Mick Tingelhoff is the center. The left guard job is a battle among Dave O'Brien, Palmer Pyle, acquired from Baltimore, and Sunde.

Eller, a 6-6, 247-pound giant, is due to take over at left end on defense. Jim Prestel and Paul Dickson at tackles and Jim Marshall at right end form a formidable front four.

Rip Hawkins, a solid middle linebacker, is flanked by Roy Winston and Bill Jobko.

East Palestine Youngster Fans 17 In Perfect Game

EAST PALESTINE — The first perfect game ever pitched here in Little League was turned in by 12-year-old Joe Lewis who hurled his First National Bank team to the league championship Monday.

Lewis came up with one of the finest performances ever recorded in this area when he struckout 17 of the 18 batters that faced him and the other batter grounded out for the perfect game.

Only one fair ball was hit off the youngster in the 1-0 victory.

The loss was the first of the season for Ferris Coach as pitcher Gary Fulton only gave up two hits. Ferris had won 17 straight games.

Last week young Lewis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lewis of N. Sumner St. had fanned 15 batters in a Little League game.

Hamilton's Dogs Score

The Basenjis of Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton of East Liverpool scored again in the weekend show at Elmira, (N.Y.)

Khajahs Gay Melda took first in her group and finished as reserve winners bitch while Gay M'Flame of the Congo (an English import) finished first in his group, took winner's dog and best of winners picking up two points toward his championship.

Champion Khajahs Midnite Marauder, co-owned by Shirley Chambers of Altoona and the Hamiltons, again went best of breed for his fourth straight breed trophy.

Hookstown Tops Lawrenceville In Playoff Battle

Hookstown took advantage of seven errors to hand Lawrenceville an 11-2 setback in the playoff for second place in the South Side Hot Stove League's Senior Division.

Three teams finished in a tie for second place and Hookstown will now meet Frankfort Friday at Lawrenceville to determine the spot.

Tom Doak was the winning pitcher and fanned 14 batters while allowing only three hits. Dave Cashdollar was charged with the loss but struck out 11. Bill Luther led the winners with two hits.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bo Belinsky will refuse to be optioned to Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League, his attorney says.

Golfers Eye $50,000 Pot In Akron Play

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Play for pay starts Thursday at the Firestone Country Club with 19 of the current 24 money leaders in professional golf shooting for a first prize of $7,500 in the fourth American Golf Classic.

Total purse is $50,000, plus $5,000 in bonuses.

Tony Lema, third top money winner behind Arnold Palmer and first place Jack Nicklaus, treated the galleries to some fancy sand blasting Tuesday. He shot a sub-par 33 warmup for nine holes at the 7,165-yard, par 70 course.

Lema, who joins Mason Rudolph and Gardener Dickinson Jr. for Thursday's action, already has won the Bing Crosby National, Thunderbird Classic and Buick Open on consecutive weeks.

He also took the Cleveland Open with a sudden death overtime victory over Palmer. Palmer, Lema, and Nicklaus are among the 84 professionals, who include eight PGA champions, six Masters winners and six former U.S. Open champions, plus the current Open king, Ken Venturi, in competition at the Firestone course.

Two former Classic champs, Jay Herbert in 1961 and Johnny Pott, who won last year, are back for another try. Palmer won in 1962, was runnerup last year, and fourth in 1961. He won with a 276 and Pott matched that last year.

The finishing holes of Saturday's third round and the final round on Sunday will be televised nationally.

Warfield Out To Duplicate Pro Debut Against Steelers

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—National Football League fans will get a chance to see two rookie flankers in action, both first-round draft choices, when the Cleveland Browns face the Pittsburgh Steelers in an exhibition game Saturday in Akron.

Browns' coach Blanton Collier has high hopes for Paul Warfield of Ohio State. Coach Buddy Parker of the Steelers feels the same about Paul Martha of the University of Pittsburgh.

The two rookies had different debuts in exhibitions games. Warfield caught three touchdown passes against the Los Angeles Rams last Saturday. Martha had trouble getting loose and didn't connect on any passes against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Both young men were picked for the college all-star game and both are about the same physically, six-feet tall and about 188 pounds.

Martha is the only rookie likely to start on offense, with the possible exception of receiver Jim Kelly of Notre Dame, who may replace Preston Carpenter at the slot end. Kelly was the Steelers' second round draft choice.

East Defeats West In Stokes Benefit

MONTICELLO, N.Y. (AP) — Oscar Robertson's long jump shot with less than three minutes to play sparked an East team to a 90-88 victory over a West squad Tuesday night in the sixth annual Maurice Stokes Benefit Game played by stars of National Basketball Association clubs.

The game, played at Kutsher's Country Club, drew a crowd of 2,200 and added $7,500 to the fund for Stokes, a former Cincinnati Royal star who was stricken by a paralytic disease at the height of his NBA career.

The game, which attracted 25 of the league's top performers, boosted the Stokes Fund to $32,500.

13 Athletes To Receive 2nd Chance For Olympics

By LARRY BORTSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Thirteen athletes, including Jim Beatty, are getting an unprecedented second chance to make the Olympic track and field team.

The athletes, including seven track men and six field event specialists, were passed into the final Olympic trials, to be held Sept. 12-13 in Los Angeles by a board composed of five members of the Olympic Track and Field Committee Tuesday.

This is the first time it has been possible for athletes to have a second chance to make the team after failing to qualify in the tryouts. The Olympic committee allowed appeals by those who felt their showing in the New York trials should not be considered a true test of their capabilities. Others were injured and didn't compete in New York.

A total of 48 athletes made written appeals, although a complete list was not disclosed.

Beatty, of Los Angeles, was the most prominent of the athletes advanced. The former world record holder for the indoor mile, withdrew from the 5,000-meter race in the New York trials with a leg cramp, and has had a relatively poor outdoor season.

It was felt, however, that his 8:38 clocking in the two-miles earlier this year was an indication that he hasn't passed his peak.

County Board Delegate Set

LISBON — Olan Sanor of East Rochester R. D. 1, president, was elected delegate to the Ohio School Boards Association meeting in Columbus Nov. 10-12, at the meeting of the Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night. Allan G. Chamberlin of Leetonia R. D. 2, vice president, was elected alternate.

In other business, Supt. James L. McBride discussed the teachers certification problem, as the state has set standards and is adhering to them. He said the county schools are in fair condition faculty-wise but still need about three teachers to complete personnel for the coming term.

Supt. McBride also reported that Timothy Maina of Kenya, Africa, who was graduated from Crestview High School last spring, will enter Kent State University in September. He is employed this summer for the Fairfield - Waterford School District and hopes to get work each summer to complete his education.

A discussion was held as to salaries of county school personnel and the board will contact the state Board of Education for salary schedules of other counties to compare with Columbiana County.

Chamberlin presided in the absence of Sanor. Bills of $380.-83 were ordered paid. Next meeting will be Sept. 22 at 8:30 p. m.

A 22-year-old district man scalded by hot water and steam in the explosion of an auto radiator was among three adults treated at City Hospital Tuesday afternoon and night.

Fred Gaines of the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd. was released after treatment for first degree scalds of the right forearm and the right side of the face. He went to the hospital at 1:15.

Joan Burlingame, 24, of 826 Fairview St., was treated at 6 p. m. for a possible fracture of the ankle suffered when she fell while on a trampoline.

James Johnston, 28, of Echo Dr., Wellsville, was treated at 11 p. m. for a laceration of the scalp suffered when he fell from a ladder.

The announcement was made by Charles Wagoner, chairman, at a meeting of the Board of Directors Tuesday night at the Broadway center. Roland Edgar, president, presided.

Reservations for the banquet may be made by calling the mission, FU. 5-1950. The public is invited.

In the June and July report, Carl Mansfield, superintendent, reported 374 persons provided beds, 835 meals served and 50 families helped.

Don Smith, who gave the treasurer's report, also closed the meeting with prayer.

Gov. Johnson Snubs Bid Of President

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Gov. Paul B. Johnson has turned down an invitation from President Johnson to meet with other Democratic governors.

Johnson said Tuesday he had no intention of attending the Democratic National Convention and that he would not meet with the President at the White House Saturday.

Louisiana Gov. John McKeithen and Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus also said they would not attend the White House meeting or the convention.

The three governors were among five Democratic state chief executives who held a secret strategy meeting in New Orleans last Friday. The others were Florida Gov. Farris Bryant and Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

Raises Chance Of Floor Fight

Rep. Fino Will Oppose Keating For Senate Bid

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. Paul A. Fino, Bronx County Republican chairman, has challenged Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester for the GOP nomination to the U.S. Senate.

Fino says Keating, who formally announced for a second term Tuesday, "cannot and should not" ask for renomination as long as he continues to withhold endorsement of presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Until Fino declared his candidacy in a statement in Washington, Keating had been expected to win unanimous nomination at the Republican State Committee meeting here Aug. 31.

Fino's move raised the possibility of a floor fight at the meeting, but nomination of Keating appeared certain. Keating's announcement won favorable reaction among party leaders, including Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, State Chairman Fred A. Young and Sen. Jacob K. Javits.

Fino said "Keating's failure and refusal to support the national ticket is tantamount to bolting the Republican party."

Fino declined to estimate how many of the 300 members of the Republican State Committee might support him. He said, however, that he expected backing by two congressmen from Nassau County on Long Island — Frank J. Becker and Steven B. Derounian.

Later, Becker issued a statement in Washington saying he could not support Keating because of the senator's failure to endorse Goldwater and his vice presidential running mate, Rep. William E. Miller of New York.

Miller said Tuesday that Keating's announcement that he would campaign independently of the national ticket would not hurt it. Miller expressed confidence that he and Goldwater will win New York State's 43 electoral votes.

Keating, in announcing his candidacy at a news conference, spoke of "deep differences" between him and Goldwater.

Questioned by reporters, however, Keating said: "I hope very much that I can support the national ticket. I've always left the door open and it's still open. I simply do not know what the future may hold."

450 At Picnic For Playlots

About 450 East Liverpool area youngsters attended the annual area playground picnic at Thompson Park Tuesday, Keith Dunlevy, supervisor, said.

From 25 to 30 youths from each of the 16 area playlots participated in several games and a candy scramble on the large field near the main entrance to the park in the afternoon. Prizes were awarded the game winners.

The youngsters were permitted to swim in the pool free of charge in the forenoon and then adjourned to the shade trees on the upper field to eat lunch.

Jean Saurbrei of the Emmanuel Playground, Joyce Massey of the Pleasant Heights lot and Nancy Smith of the playground in Calcutta were in charge of activities.

Dunlevy said activities will close for the summer on Friday at all playgrounds.

Southern Businessman Reports Theft Of Coins

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Shreveport, La., businessman who came to Cleveland for a national coin collectors' convention has reported the theft of a collection of rare coins valued at $50,000.

There has been a rash of valuable coin thefts in northern Ohio recently, including the attempted theft of a $1 million collection from a suburban North Royalton man in May.

Thomas A. Bridges, owner of the Shreveport Teletype Coin Exchange, told police Tuesday night that the missing collection was in two brown leather carrying cases which were taken from his room at a downtown hotel.

Bridges said the theft occurred between 8 and 9:30 p.m. while he was away from his hotel room on the sixth floor. He said the hotel door was locked when he returned. Police said there were no signs of forcible entry.

More than 5,000 collectors are due in Cleveland for the 73rd annual convention of the American Numismatic Association, which opens today.

Exhibits valued at millions of dollars will be on display. A dozen or more off-duty Cleveland detectives reportedly have been hired to guard the various collections.

In Warren, Ohio, over the weekend, the owner of a coin shop reported a burglary in which an estimated $250,000 worth of rare coins and bills were taken. Authorities said professionals took the coins.

Dock Strike Branded As Kick In Pants

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's port director called a four-day dock strike "a kick in the pants" and said the shutdown "is spreading the death knoll for the Port of Cleveland to Europe, South America, Asia, the Eastern Seaboard and even in Ohio."

Port director William J. Rogers said Tuesday shippers are sending their cargo to other cities, "where the International Longshoremen's Association doesn't exist . . ."

Members of the ILA struck the Cleveland Stevedore Co. Saturday after crew members of a foreign ship moved some cargo while the stevedores were at lunch.

Thomas F. Coakely, president of Cleveland Stevedore, said four more vessels canceled stops today because of the strike. Two others have bypassed the city and two more lifted anchor and departed without completing their unloading at company docks, Coakley said.

Coakley and ILA international president Thomas W. Gleason in New York have exchanged telegrams over the dispute. Gleason said Daniel J. Greene, president of the local here, had told him the company had violated the contract by not proceeding with grievance steps spelled out in the contract.

In a telegram to Gleason, Coakley replied, "We demand that your union and its members terminate their illegal strike, return to work at once and follow the grievance procedures of the contract."

Coakley also filed unfair labor practice charges against the union with the National Labor Relations Board. The suit contends the union violated the law by refusing to bargain and by posting pickets without going through the grievance procedure.

Civil Defense Units Discuss Rescue Plan

Plans to organize a land rescue team were discussed at a meeting of the police team and Junior Auxiliary of the East Liverpool Civil Defense Tuesday night at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. Annex.

Dennis Smith, deputy director, said that anyone interested in joining the proposed team, including members of the extinct 31st Mobile Support Group, may attend the next meeting Tuesday evening.

Ed Nelson, city Civil Defense Director, was a guest. Fifteen attended.

25th District Nominee Set

BEAVER — John Loth, a professor of American History at Youngstown University, has been named by Republican Committees of Lawrence, Butler and Beaver Counties as nominee to face incumbent Democratic Rep. Frank Clark of Bessemer in the November election for the 25th Congressional District.

Loth was named at a meeting of delegates from the three counties at the Lawrence County Courthouse Tuesday night. The caucus was called after James M. Cunningham of Zelienople, who was nominated in the primary, withdrew from the race last Monday to continue as director of the Bureau of Bituminous Conservation and Reclamation in the state Mines Department.

Loth is a resident of Mahoningtown in Lawrence County. He was one of several candidates discussed for the ticket spot.

Beaver County sent 36 delegates to the meeting, while Butler had 28 representatives and Lawrence, 23.

Rep. Miller Calls For 'Firmness' In Deals With Reds

NEW YORK (AP) — Rep. William E. Miller, making his first campaign appearance in his home state since he won the Republican nomination for vice president, called Tuesday night for "firmness" in dealing with Communist countries.

He also criticized Democratic handling of foreign aid and overseas information policies.

Miller addressed 100 Polish-American organization leaders at a session of the American Council of Polish Cultural Clubs.

He said no one in the United States can consider himself "wholly free" until the people of Poland and the other Communist satellites are free.

Miller said U.S. aid to the Communist government of Poland does not help the Polish people, and added: "Our aid should be to the people — it should be people-to-people, not to the government."

He said "the right of self-determination" is what Americans want for people in Poland and all other countries.

Other Children Admit Shutting Old Icebox

BALTIMORE (AP) — Police say other children have admitted shutting the door of an abandoned icebox in which three children suffocated.

The victims, Howard Banks, 5, Dorene Alston, 5, and Marlene Kennedy, 8, were found Aug. 10, the day after they had disappeared, in an old icebox in a garage behind a house in the block in which they all lived.

Patrolmen Nicholas Wingrove and Frank Wilt said Tuesday they were puzzled because the garage door was closed when the children were found, and so began questioning neighborhood children.

Youth Gets Detention

LISBON — William Syppko, 17, of Salem was sentenced to two weeks' detention in County Jail Monday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on a delinquency charge alleging he assaulted a 15-year-old boy on a Salem street. Cornelius Csepke, chief juvenile officer, filed the charges. He said he is continuing an investigation on the theory the assault may have been part of a "gang" dispute.

Senate Kills Presidential Debate Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats have relieved President Johnson of the burden of deciding whether to debate Sen. Barry Goldwater in a radio-television campaign confrontation.

They locked horns with Republicans over the issue of who is chicken.

By a 44-41 vote the Senate tabled Tuesday night — and thus killed — legislation to suspend equal time provisions of the Communications Act.

The measure was similar to the one which paved the way for Kennedy-Nixon debates in 1960.

Twelve Democrats joined 29 Republicans in opposing the tabling. All the 44 votes to kill were cast by Democrats.

Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., charged that it was "very evident some influence has been ordered from higher up to junk this bill because of the exigencies of this campaign."

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., the keynote speaker for the Democratic National Convention opening Monday, voted against tabling the compromise measure which he had supported.

Pastore said Goldwater had once declared on a television program the president of the United States should not be placed in the position of debating an opponent.

The rejected bill would have suspended for 60 days the requirement that if a network offered free time to any presidential candidate, it would have to give equal time to all, including those of perhaps a dozen minor parties.

Although nobody concerned would say publicly that Johnson wanted the bill killed, the action came after Democratic legislative leaders had conferred with him at the White House.

Tension Eases In Violence-Torn Illinois Section

DIXMOOR, Ill. (AP) — Tension in this racially troubled community eased this morning after a night relatively free of violence.

The hope was that the rioting that began Sunday had run its course.

It had resulted in about 50 persons injured, heavy property damage and 70 persons arrested in the six-block area in the largely Negro suburbs of Dixmoor and Harvey south of Chicago.

The only incident Tuesday night was a fire at a golf course club house near the trouble center.

"It looks like arson," said Fire Chief Edward Mulder of Harvey.

Although three Negro youths were seen near the club house shortly before the fire, officials declined to speculate on any connection with the racial trouble.

Helen Krol, daughter of the owner of Dixie Hi golf course, said both whites and Negroes use the course and that it has had no racial trouble.

New Date Slated On Weapon Case

Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark said today a preliminary hearing has been scheduled Sept. 2 for Fred Talbott of Cuyahoga Falls, accused of carrying a concealed weapon in East Liverpool Aug. 9.

Talbott's hearing originally had been set for today, but Judge Samuel M. Chertoff granted a continuance after the prosecution advised one of its witnesses is on vacation in Canada.

Talbott was named in an affidavit signed by Charles E. Beatty of Vine St., allgeing that the Cuyahoga Falls man was carrying a .32-caliber automatic pistol "concealed on or about his person." Police said Beatty charged Talbott threatened him with the gun.

Talbott was taken into custody by Cuyahoga Falls police and returned here Aug. 10 by two East Liverpool officers. Talbott, arraigned originally on Aug. 11, requested a continuance to permit him to obtain counsel.

Beating Death Probed By Trumbull Sheriff

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — The Trumbull County sheriff's office was investigating the possibility of homicide in connection with the beating and death of Eva May Dutlip, 32, in a motel on U.S. 422.

The Warren woman died Tuesday. Deputies found her badly beaten in a motel Monday night. She told police she had been beaten by a man. County Coroner Dr. Joseph Sudimak Jr. will perform an autopsy tomorrow to determine the exact cause of death.

House Ready For Vote On Redistricting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate keeps talking, but the House votes today on what has become a key issue in the fading session of Congress — apportionment of state legislatures.

A Senate filibuster is holding back action on a proposal by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois that would permit states to delay court-ordered reapportionment. But a bill much tougher on the federal courts is up for a vote in the House.

Offered by Rep. William M. Tuck, D-Va., it would remove jurisdiction over state-reapportionment cases from the lower federal courts and prevent the U.S. Supreme Court from reviewing such cases decided in state supreme courts.

Both the Senate and House moves are aimed at undoing a Supreme Court ruling that both houses of a state legislature must be based on population.

There is strong opposition in the House to the Supreme Court ruling, but the very toughness of the Tuck bill is causing some misgivings among those who would like to see the ruling overturned.

They feel there is more question of the constitutionality of the Tuck bill than there is of the Dirksen proposal and thus more likelihood that it might be vetoed by President Johnson.

Continuance Granted On Non-Support Case

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today granted a continuance until Tuesday at 9 a.m. in the case of Ernest Jenrett of Midland, accused of failure to support two minor children.

Arraigned this morning on a charge signed by his wife, Mrs. Phyllis Jennett, of St. George St., Jenrett requested time to obtain counsel. His bond was set at $250.

Patrolman Charles A. Winters advised the court the police department has a warrant on file from Juvenile Court at Lisbon, also accusing Jenrett of non-support. Queried by the court, Mrs. Jenrett said she filed the charge at Lisbon July 12. Judge Chertoff, in continuing Jenrett's case, said Juvenile Court may take prior jurisdiction in the charge.

Youngsters In California Await Beatles' Concert

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A quiet frenzy hung like fog in the air today as thousands of youngsters prepared to storm the Cow Palace for the Beatles' concert tonight.

At the Hilton Hotel the British quartet scheduled a day of rest in preparation for their first appearance on the current U.S. tour.

The Beatles arrived Tuesday and were greeted by an estimated 9,000 teen-agers, far below predicted estimates of between 50,000 and 100,000. About a dozen girls required first aid. None was seriously hurt.

The British group permitted their fans a 40-second audience at the airport before they were whisked off to the downtown hotel. A press conference turned into an autograph session when several young fans slipped into the hotel.

Some fans arrived at the airport Monday night. Others began arriving at 6:30 a.m., more than 12 hours before the Beatles' plane touched down.

Police estimated 2,000 fans greeted the singers when they arrived at the hotel.

Within minutes the four were at the window of their room on the 15th floor. A faithful throng gathered.

Youngsters roared each time one of them appeared in the window. Shrieks could be heard two blocks away.

500 See Water Battle At Calcutta's Carnival

About 500 persons attended the annual carnival of the Calcutta volunteer fire department Tuesday night when a water battle between Calcutta firemen was featured.

Liverpool Township East firemen had challenged Calcutta but the department was unable to send a team because of a meeting. Calcutta firemen chose sides for the water battle.

Ronnie Boston's "Swinging Sweethearts" will be featured tonight at 8:30 at the carnival grounds. There will be free entertainment through Saturday in addition to eight rides and 11 concessions.

'Work Session' Held By Junior Fair Board

LISBON — "Work Night" highlighted a meeting of the County Junior Fair Board Tuesday as the members prepared the County Fairgrounds for the opening of the annual rural extravanganza next Tuesday.

The youths cleaned the 4-H Building, built and painted four picnic tables and hauled sawdust for the barns. Rebecca McGary of Kensington, vice president, presided for brief business.

The group will hold another work session at the grounds Saturday, according to Robert Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H work.

Panhandle FHA Loan Total Hits $250,000

Loans totaling a quarter - million dollars were made by the Farmers Home Administration in Moundsville to rural families in Hancock, Brooke, Marshall and Ohio Counties during the fiscal year ending June 30.

Loans from the Department of Agriculture agency carry a 4 and 5 per cent interest rate and are available to purchase livestock and equipment and improve farms and buildings.

Large Fields Of Livestock Seen At Fair

LISBON — Large fields of entries will mark most divisions in the livestock exhibits at the 119th annual County Fair that begins next Tuesday.

Mrs. Velma Cope, secretary, said today entries in the Senior Division topped most former years when the deadline passed Tuesday at 6 p. m.

The fields include: 250 ponies; 275 head of cattle; 112 sheep; 87 hogs; 323 chickens and 26 pairs of pigeons.

The list does not include late mail entries. Those postmarked before 6 last night will be accepted, along with others given directly to Fair Board members, Mrs. Cope explained.

Entries of flowers, vegetables, fruits, grain, baked goods and fancywork will be received until 6 p. m. next Tuesday. Mrs. Cope requested that entries be filed in advance of the deadline, if possible, to allow the board time for processing.

The fair board will meet tonight at 8 in the secretary's office to make final preparations.

The fair will open with "entry day" next Tuesday and get under way in earnest on Wednesday, Aug. 26. It will run through Sunday, Aug. 30.

Beaver United Funds Tour Slated Saturday

A "Come-See" tour of three affiliated Beaver County United Fund agencies is scheduled Saturday from 9 a. m. to noon for campaign leaders but open to the public.

The three agencies scheduled for visits are the Children's Home at New Brighton, the Beaver County Blind Association Workshop in Beaver Falls and the Lints Workshop for Retarded Children in Rochester. The tour will originate from the Penn Beaver Hotel at Rochester, at 9 a. m., proceed on to the Children's Home by 9:30, then to the Blind Association about 10:30 a. m. and conclude at the Retarded Children's Workshop. Visitors may join the tour at any point.

Although the tour includes only three of the more than 43 agencies and services supported by the annual United Fund campaign, they are typical examples of how contributors dollars are spent, sponsors said.

Contracts Let On Children's Home Needs

Purchase of $10,103.86 in kitchen equipment for the new Hancock County Children's Home under construction was approved by the Board of Trustees Tuesday night.

Bids were submitted earlier to Ray Shaw, architect, and turned over to the building committee for approval at last night's meeting at the home near Pughtown.

A total of $6,289.52 of the equipment will be purchased from the Stone & Thomas department store in Wheeling, including a $2,255.50 freezer.

Acme Sales Co. of Wellsville will furnish $3,652.50 of the equipment, including a $1,240 dishwasher, a $675 electric food mixer and a $650 water station. Shelves will be purchased from Fort Steuben Metal Products Co. for $161.84.

A five - member committee was named to select the style of furnishings for the interior of the new building. They are Norman D. Ferrari, Charles Miller Dick Wright, Ernest John and Jack Evans, a new member of the board.

"Prepare yourself for good eating at bargain prices," Johnson said, pointing out West Virginia's apple crop is up an estimated 26 per cent over last year and nationally, up 17 per cent.

Hillcrest Farms near Chester is the second largest apple farm in West Virginia.

Congolese Driver Was Witness

Savagery, Murder Bared In Death Of 2 UN Aides

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — An account of savagery and murder has been brought back by a Congolese driver who witnessed the death of two U.N. officials on a mercy mission to a Watusi refugee camp.

The driver reported to U.N. authorities Tuesday that the two Frenchmen were hacked with machetes and hit with a burst of machinegun fire by a mob of Watusi warriors and Congolese rebels.

As the crowd hurled itself on him, Jean Plicque, 33, head of the Bukavu branch of the International Labor Organization, pleaded: "Gentlemen, we are here to help you and not for anything else."

A Congolese rebel then fired a dozen shots at Plicque and his companion, Francois Preziosi, 43, Bukavu representative of the U.N. High Commission for Refugees.

Plicque and Preziosi had gone to the encampment just north of Bukavu on Lake Kivu in the eastern Congo to free 120 refugees held by authorities and investigate reports of threatened reprisals against Watusi refugees.

The tall and fierce Watusis have been fleeing Rwanda since 1959 when their former slaves, the Bahutu, gained control of the country. About 60,000 Watusis are in the Congo.

George Yogolero, the Congolese chauffeur of the U.N. officials, said the two men had been warned that the Watusis sympathized with Communist-supported rebels in the area, but that they insisted on carrying out their mission.

As they approached the camp, Yogolero said, they saw men armed with submachine guns, rifles and gasoline bombs lurking along the roadside. After continuing a third of a mile, the car was stopped by the rebels and some Watusis carrying spears and machetes.

"The crowd began to howl, including the women and children who were a short distance away," the driver said. He stepped out of the car, waving a white handkerchief.

Midland Man Hurt As Auto, Truck Collide

A 26-year-old Midland man escaped with minor injuries but was cited by the State Highway Patrol after a collision between his auto and a tractor - trailer rig Tuesday at the junction of State Routes 14 and 165 east of Columbiana.

Joseph M. Baich of 16 Hillcrest Manor, Midland, escaped with contusions of the lower left leg in a mishap that involved his 1963 model auto and a rig driven by James F. Harrington, 50, of Beaver Falls, the patrol said.

The patrol charged that Baich failed to yield the right - of-way while traveling south on Route 165 and ran into the side of the tractor - trailer, which was westbound on Route 14.

There was heavy damage to the auto and minor to moderate damage to the rig, the patrol said. Baich was cited on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way. The site of the accident was 1.1 miles west of the junction of State Route 170. It was timed at 5:20 a. m. yesterday.

No one was injured in another mishap Tuesday at 3:10 p.m. on Route 30 at Cannons Mills.

It involved autos driven by Carl Minor, 29, of 415 Harker Ave., Newell, and Billy Boston, 38, of Echo Dell. Minor attempted to pass on the right berm while the woman was making a right turn, the patrol said. Minor was cited on a charge of improper passing.

The patrol said it still has no clues to a hit - skip motorist involved in a three - way accident Sunday afternoon on Route 45 in which three persons were injured.

Anyone with information about the hit - skip car, which was a light blue or green Chevrolet ranging from a 1961 to 1964 model, has been asked to contact the Lisbon post.

The car will have damage to both sides after the "squeeze play" in which the driver squeezed between two cars and then continued without stopping, officers said.

Dies Fiery Death

CINCINNATI (AP) — William J. Rohlfs Sr., 41, died a fiery death Tuesday when a tractor upset on hilly ground behind his home in suburban Reading and spilling gasoline caught fire. William J. Rohlfs Jr. told police he was unable to pull his father from under the vehicle before it burst into flames.

Nominations Set At Grange Event

Both the subordinate and juvenile branches of the Yellow Creek Grange will hold nomination of officers in separate meetings Thursday night at 8:30 at the Grange Hall.

Following the nominations, the two groups will hold a joint wiener roast with the project committee, composed of Lawrence Mick, Raymond James and Miss Judy Reight, in charge. Grange members are to bring wieners and buns, while cold drinks and coffee will be furnished.

Chemical Fumes Rout Residents In Florida

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Hundreds of persons were routed from their homes by noxious fumes Tuesday night after a 55-gallon drum of underwater weed killer exploded at a chemical plant.

More than 100 persons were treated at hospital emergency rooms for eye and nose irritations, cramps and nausea.

The fumes, from a chemical called acrolein, billowed from open doors and windows into the heavily populated, mostly Negro neighborhood. Mass traffic jams caused by curious onlookers hampered firemen and police trying to reach the area in gas masks.

"First you choke, then you get abdominal cramps and nausea," said Vernon Barchard, photographer for the Tampa Tribune. "I vomited 15 minutes."

Police Capt. L. J. Buchanan and fireman Lionel Hernandez, were hospitalized for observation.

Herbert Friedman, president of Southern Mill Creek Chemical Co., where the explosion occurred, said the chemical fumes were not poisonous.

Friedman said he was in the plant office when he heard an explosion about 8 p.m. He said the chemical apparently built up pressure inside the container, blowing off the top and spewing snowflake-size powder over a store room.

Firemen, wearing gas masks and rubber suits, entered the four-story building to cap the drum. Many were overcome when fumes seeped through loose masks.

Police, using sound trucks, ordred evacuation of a 16-square block area around the plant. Firemen, using hoses, brought the fumes under control shortly before midnight.

People In News

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Barry Goldwater Jr. says there'll be no government job for him if his father is elected president.

"I would have too much self-pride" to accept, the 26-year-old son of the Republican candidate told newsmen. "I want to make it on my own."

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — Painter Salvador Dali, whose works get high prices in the United States, is doing a new one called "Deification of the Dollar."

Dali told the news agency Logos that the painting will be "just dollars and more dollars."

The agency predicted it would be his most-expensive work.

HAIFA, Israel (AP) — "I am an artist and not a politician," snapped Sophia Loren.

That was the Italian actress' reaction to a report from Damascus that Arab embassies in Italy are investigating to determine if her movie, "Judith," should be banned in Arab countries. "Judith" is being filmed in Israel.

"As far as I know, Arab states are democratic countries and I cannot believe that they will boycott me," Miss Loren said.

4 U.S. Sentry Satellites Can Detect Atomic Blasts

WASHINGTON (AP) — With four U.S. sentry satellites orbiting the earth it is no longer possible for a nuclear explosion in space to go undetected, a Defense Department expert reports.

"If the Russians fired anything we would know about it," Dr. R. L. Sproull, director of the Pentagon's Advanced Research Projects Agency, told a National Space Club luncheon Tuesday.

The two U.S. satellites launched a month ago 65,000 miles above the earth and two similar satellites put into orbit last October are capable of detecting nuclear detonation more than 200 million miles out in space.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved a tax settlement by which the government would acquire the Tarrytown, N.Y. mansion of railroad magnate Jay Gould and open it to the public.

It would also save the estate of Gould's daughter, Anna, Duchess de Talleyrand, about $700,000. She died in Paris in 1961.

Under the settlement the house would be transferred to the National Trust and be deductible as a charitable contribution from the estate valued at $1.3 million.

The legislaion, sponsored by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., as an amendment to a minor tax bill, was returned to the House for consideration of the changes.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kathryn O'Hay Granahan, the U.S. treasurer, broke her knee and elbow Tuesday in a fall at a radio station.

The former Pennsylvania congresswoman, widow of Rep. William Thomas Granahan, D-Pa., was reported to be in satisfactory condition.

Woman, Beaten, Shot Robbed In California

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A woman was beaten unconscious, shot and robbed in her room at the Hilton hotel Tuesday — her screams for help mistaken by a maid for shrieks of girls waiting for the Beatles.

Gertrude Goodman, of Marysville, Calif., about 50, was taken to Children's Hospital in critical condition. Police said a bullet had grazed her head.

About 2,000 fans of the British singing group swarmed around the hotel before the Beatles reached the hotel four hours later.

New Research Development May Set Cause Of Leukemia

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new cancer research development, which a Senate group says foreshadows a likely major breakthrough in pin-pointing the cause of the highly fatal leukemia of childhood, became known in detail today.

The Senate Appropriations Committee referred to the development in general terms in a report released Tuesday. Commenting on it and other scientific findings reported in recent hearings, the committee said: "Effective methods of prevention and cure (of leukemia) seem distinct possibilities in the light of several observations, some old and some new."

Perhaps the key finding — made so recently that the scientists involved have not yet had their findings published in medical literature — is that virus-like particles found in the blood of some human victims of leukemia can apparently be made to grow in laboratory test tubes.

The development — climaxing three years of effort dating from the time when such particles were first found in leukemia patients — is a necessary prelude to pinning down whether the particles are truly viruses and whether, indeed, they are directly or indirectly involved in causing human leukemia.

It could also be a first step towards trying to develop a vaccine against leukemia.

Officials of the National Cancer Institute supplied the information when asked by a reporter what the Senate committee was referring to in its report.

The Senate committee gave its views in a report to the Senate recommending a $140,011,000 appropriation for NCI, plus $10 million more for the institute's special cancer-virus research programs.

Donald Van Dyke, second vice commander, and committee served a spaghetti dnner prepared by the post auxiliary. Next meeting is Sept. 8 at 8 p.m. in the post home.

Fire Fighters Eye New Plan To Control Blazes

ELKO, Nev. (AP) — Fire fighters planned to resort to cloud seeding today in hopes of creating more rain to help them control huge fires which have blazed in northeast Nevada since Saturday.

Bureau of Land Management officials estimated that about 350,000 acres of valuable range land have been burned in the fire-stricken region, declared a disaster area by Gov. Grant Sawyer.

Showers late Tuesday helped contain two of the fires, but winds fanned the massive Boulder Flat-Maggie Creek blaze northwest of Elko through 15 miles of grass and brush in a few hours.

The Boulder Flat-Maggie Creek complex accounted for more than 180,000 acres of blackened range in an area 30 to 40 miles west and northwest of Elko.

Some lightning flashed Tuesday, but there were no reports of new fires. Nearly all the big blazes of the past five days were set by lightning.

Fire crews totaled about 2,000 men, many of them Indian professionals from throughout the West.

Turkish Air Units Returned To NATO

PARIS (AP) — Turkish air units withdrawn from the Atlantic Alliance defense system last week were returned today to NATO command.

The Turkish units were withdrawn for use in carrying out sorties over Greek Cypriot positions on Cyprus.

A spokesman for Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe said Turkey informed NATO early today it was returning the units to NATO control.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I came to this rather large city from a small town in Kansas. I was unable to get the kind of employment I had hoped for and my money was running out, so I took a job as a cocktail waitress.

The lounge where I work is a favorite hangout for advertising and public relations executives. Their suit sleeves don't have creases in them like the yokels I used to know back home. (My girl friend told me this is the first thing to look for.)

Yesterday one of the best-looking men I ever saw asked me why a girl with such gorgeous legs was waiting on tables. He said I ought to be a hosiery model and that he could help me. But he doesn't want to talk about the job in his office. He prefers my place.

Do you know anything about hosiery modeling? I used to read your column back in Kansas and I trust you, Ann. Please help me. — TOUGH SLEDDING.

Dear Sledding: That model routine is strictly off the cob.

Model agencies have lists a mile long of girls with beautiful gams who are stepping all over each other trying to get jobs.

The man's sleeve may not have a crease but I think he's got something up it. Tell him to get lost.

Sweet Thirteen

Dear Ann: Our 13-year-old daughter, Mary Alice, is a sweet and innocent little girl. She received a necklace and some earrings from a 14-year-old boy who lives in the neighborhood. I would guess the boy paid about $7 for the set.

Mary Alice did not tell me about the gift when she received it. I learned about it from her older sister who tried unsuccessfully to blackmail Mary Alice into doing her household chores. I didn't want to make a big thing of the gift so I said nothing.

That was two weeks ago. Since that time I have discussed the matter with some friends and they all feel I should insist that Mary Alice return the jewelry.

I would very much appreciate your opinion.—A.I.R.

Dear A.I.R.: I believe, and very strongly, that the jewelry should be sent back at once, and that you tell Mary Alice she may not accept gifts from boys.

The thought of earrings for a 13-year-old nauseates me. Such a gift clearly suggests that these two are playing at being grown up. Wake up and smell the coffee, mother. That "sweet and innocent little girl" has you buffaloed.

Compulsive Gambler

Dear Ann: My husband would rather shoot craps than eat, and that's about the choice we've had for eight miserable years.

Before I married Jack I knew he was a horse player. He promised to give up horses if I would marry him. He kept his word, but now it's dice instead of horses.

We've been living on my pay check for the last two months because Jack got stuck in a game and borrowed from a tough bunch of monkeys. When I think he has been working for those thugs instead of his family I get so mad I can't see straight.

I've tried to reason with him. When we talk, he says I'm right and swears he is going to quit gambling for good. But somehow he hasn't got the will power to stay away from the old bones.

Jack is a swell guy and a wonderful father. I know I'll never leave him no matter what, but I need your help.—ARLENE.

Dear Arlene: Write to Gamblers Anonymous for literature. The address is P.O. Box 17173, Los Angeles, Calif., 90017.

Gamblers Anonymous has helped many compulsive gamblers overcome their addiction. A 5-cent stamp could change your life. It's worth the gamble — I mean the investment.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hammond Park Group Will Meet

Wellsville's Hammond Park Commission will meet Friday night at 8 in the upper pavilion to further investigate proposed installation of water lines to both pavilions and a septic tank near the park entrance at an estimated cost of $800.

Installation of the water lines and the tank are slated to begin next week under the supervision of Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare in co-operation with the commission.

Charles Lewis, commission chairman, said the water lines will be laid from the city main in Russell Heights to the park. Don Brewer offered to lay the pipe free of charge.

Lewis emphasized that the installation of the pipes and tank is a "large step" in the direction of eventually having a permanent caretaker for the park.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Children Should Help Select Clothes

During the next several days there will be considerable shopping for and with children entering or returning to school, boarding school, or college. What part will the child have in the choice and purchase of his clothes? If he or she is going to a boarding school or college, how much rseponsibility will he take in preparing and packing them? Perhaps some of these youngsters won't see many of their clothes till they are unpacked on arrival at school or college.

Dr. Garry Myers

Also many a child remaining at home, to attend classes in the grades or high school, will have all his school clothes purchased, repaired, dry - cleaned or laundered without his having to do a thing about them. All he may do is to wear them, and express his pleasure, displeasure or indifference to them.

SOME PARENTS, who evince great concern about the progress of their children in learning from books at school, may give no thought to opportunities for educating these children in the choice, purchase and care of their clothes. Yet there are tremendous opportunities for education in values, in the use of money, and in learning to bear responsibility, in the selection, purchase and care of clothing. These lessons may begin when the child is four years of age or younger.

As you consider your child's clothing needs this fall, why not ask yourself how much he should participate in their selection, purchase or preparation? How old must he be for this purpose? Six years old? Ten? Nineteen?

Should he, beforehand, help you to take stock of the clothes he has on hand and their state of repair? Consider his minimum needs as against his wishes? Let him go over the family budget with you, to understand what part is available for his clothes.

AS HE discovers the needs and wishes of each and every member of the family, he should be better able to figure out what would be a reasonable proportion of the family money available for his clothes.

You may discover, of course, that he will think of his own wishes first. He may press you to spend an unreasonable amount on his clothes.

When, in a family conference, an approximate amount for each school child is arrived at, what part should each share in the selection and purchase of his clothes? At what age should he accompany you to make the purchases? When may he be able to shop alone for some or all of his clothes?

Suppose — at 10, 14 or 18— the child wishes to purchase clothes which, in your judgment, would not be sensible or practical in quality or style. Then what? In such instance the mother might select an array of clothing at one or several stores, within a range she would approve, and then let her son or daughter go alone to choose as he or she likes from this group.

THE DEGREE to which your school child will be prepared to help in the choice and purchase of his clothes will depend on how well you have gradually guided him in making choices and decisions. Some children at 8 or 10 evince amazing ability, even when shopping alone; while some others have had little or no experience in this direction.

Has your child operated on a budgeted allowance? Has his allowance included an amount for a few items of clothing at first, and for more and more items later? Will he, by the time he is in his teens, have a clothes allowance?

Such are some of the ways in which we may guide our children from early years to gradually take on more and more responsibility in the choice, purchase and care of their clothes.

My bulletins "Allowances" and "Educating Your Child in Responsibility," may be secured by sending a stamped, self-addressed envleope to me in care of The Review.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear folks: I bought two yards of adhesive-backed paper for less than a dollar and made four placemants (18" x 12"). four placemats (18" x 12"). Naturally, I did not remove the paper backing!

Placemats are very attractive when cut with pinking shears, or they can be scalloped around the edges with regular scissors.

The mats are so easy to keep clean, as they do not absorb stains, and can be washed with a swipe of a damp sponge. They are much less expensive than the usual placemats.

One can cut the placemats any shape one desires. I made a darling set by drawing around a turkey platter.

With the two-thirds of a yard you have left over, you can cut attractive centerpieces, or small circles to use as coasters for your glasses, water pitcher, etc.

I also covered my stained hot pads (the kind you set hot food on) with some of the scraps and they are prettier than they were when new. Now I have a matching set of everything.

I think these would be wonderful to sell at bazaars and excellent as a project for Girl Scouts, etc. And think of the profit an organization could make with very little effort!

DEAR HELOISE: I just stumbled upon the idea of using aluminum foil to wrap packages. It is quite beautiful.

Tear off as much foil as needed (plus a few extra inches), and wad the aluminum foil into a ball. Then carefully unfold the crushed foil on a table and smooth it out.

This crinkled sheet is ready to be used for wrapping; and I must say it makes an attractive package. How tightly or loosely you squeeze the ball depends on the size of the wrinkles you desire in the aluminum foil. It is pretty any way . . . no matter how you wrinkle it.

LILLIAN WILSON

This idea would be especially good for wrapping birthday presents all during the year. After all, most of us keep foil in the house. We don't always have time to go to the store to buy wrappings. So tear off a little piece of foil and try it. I'm sure you'll love it.

I found that by putting the crinkled foil down flat on the table and rubbing it briskly with my fingers - it was even prettier.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: If you have a pitcher of juice, or some other drink which you want to chill (but you don't want to "water it down"), put your ice cubes in a plastic bag, close the end of the bag with a rubber band, and put the bag and all in the pitcher of juice.

NANCY.

DEAR HELOISE: After repeated washings, babies' rubber pants become stiff and uncomfortable.

To keep the pants soft, take them from the washer and pop them into the dryer with a full load of towels. This will even soften rubber pants which have already become stiff.

BARBARA MATHY.

DEAR HELOISE: For a mattress protector on a small child's bed, I use a flannel-backed plastic tablecloth - flannel side up.

The tablecloth protects the mattress, is comfortable for the child to sleep on, and I can wash it in the machine in lukewarm water and hang it on the line.

DOREEN BARTLETT.

DEAR HELOISE: I take a small detergent bottle, pour a little liquid silver polish in it and dilute it with a bit of water so it won't clog.

I use this to clean my silverware as I'm washing my dishes. I use a piece of paper toweling to rub the silverware after squirting the polish directly on the silver itself. My silver is clean in no time at all.

Youth Wins 18-Hour Battle With 370-Pound Sting Ray

COCOA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Bolstered by a ham sandwich, weary 15-year-old Tom Joyner Jr., battled a 370-pound sting ray for 18 hours.

He finally got it to shore, but with the help of divers.

"I don't care," Tom said. "I got him anyway."

He never let go of the line from 6:45 p.m. Monday until 1:30 p.m. Tuesday when two divers ran an oar through the ray's gills and helped Tom haul him to the beach with a boat.

A huge crowd, part of the thousands who came by during the day, had gathered.

Tom wouldn't leave the 600-foot-long Patrick Air Force Base pier after he hooked into the ray, a round, flat-bodied creature with a whip-like tail capable of inflicting severe wounds.

Through the night, his father and friends fed him coffee. When morning and the hot Florida sun came, Tom switched to soft drinks.

His father sprayed the reel with water but it still burned Tom's hands through his heavy gloves.

Just before noon, Tom ate a ham sandwich — his only food during the battle. He was never able to bring the ray closer than 200 yards, and he decided to go after it in a boat when it played out 300 yards of his 400-yard, 98-pound test line.

Tom's battle wasn't the first at the pier. Last July, Mike Douglas, 15, battled a giant jewfish for 33 hours before losing it. Also last July, Tom landed a 310-pound shark, a record for the pier.

Political Pulse-Taking

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Reporter Tries His Hand Every Presidential Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Some years ago, in a Broadway musical, they sang a song called "Leave My Pulse Alone," or words to that effect.

It kidded polls, pollsters, market researchers and those who attempt to measure trends and discover what people are thinking about. This of course includes newspaper reporters.

In every presidential election year, I try my hand at political pulse-taking. You have some interesting experiences, and frequently they recall that song.

For example, the elderly gentleman in Springfield, Mass., in 1956. He was the soul of courtesy when he answered the doorbell. I explained that I would like to hear his opinions about candidates, issues, etc., his Yankee features froze.

"That, sir, is an invasion of privacy," he said. "Why, I wouldn't even tell my wife what I think about those matters. Now, you get off my porch or "I'll sic the dog on you."

Another time, in Passaic, N.J., a housewife made a deal with me. "I have some work to do upstairs," she said. "If you will sit here and watch junior, I'll talk to you."

So I watched junior for about 15 minutes until she returned. It wasn't a very rewarding interview.

No, she hadn't voted in the previous presidential election. Too young. No, she didn't know how she would vote this time "because I don't know what my husband thinks."

But it doesn't always work that way. In Dallas, Tex., I questioned a man about his preferences. When he left the room, his wife, whispered, "He says he's going to vote for Eisenhower, but don't you believe him."

"Why not?" I asked.

"He knows I always vote opposite to the way he votes. He told you that so that I'd vote for Stevenson. But he isn't fooling me. He will vote for Stevenson and I'll vote for Eisenhower," she said.

Another time, I stood outside a factory gate in Connecticut hoping to catch the pulse of some workers. Presently one emerged. I buttonholed him.

"Listen, Mac," he said, not unpleasantly, "I had a fight with my wife this morning. I've just had another fight with the boss. Now I've got a date with a bottle of beer and I don't feel like talking to nobody about nothing."

Frequently, when a candidate tours a factory, I stay some distance behind and then ask the men, who have just shaken his hand, what they think of him. Typical replies in Detroit — "He's all right, I guess," "Seems like a nice fella," "I don't trust none of 'em."

How would you count these in your poll?

Farmers In Beaver Get Wheat Aid Data

Notices are being mailed to wheat growers of Beaver County, transmitting 1965 wheat program information as applicable to the individual farm, Glenn Campbell, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today.

The notices list the 1965 farm wheat allotment, the farm's normal yield, the allocation for marketing certificates, the rate of payment available for wheat diversion and the conserving base established for the farm.

The chairman urged farm operators to study the notices information carefully so that farming plans for the next growing season may be completed while there still is opportunity to file applications under the 1965 voluntary wheat program. The sign - up will start Aug. 24 and extend through Oct. 2.

Operation of the 1965 program generally will be about the same as for 1964.

Short, Violent Storm Causes Heavy Damage

MIDDLEPORT, Ohio (AP)— Property damage estimated in the thousands of dollars was caused by a short but violent storm which struck Middleport and nearby Pomeroy early Tuesday night.

The isolated storm lasted only seven minutes but knocked down 50 to 100 trees and many wires in Middleport and blew the roofs off of several houses. Three or four trees and a few lines were blown down in Pomeroy also. No injuries were reported.

Junior Exhibits At Fair Expected To Be Largest

LISBON — Entries being received indicate that the Junior Fair exhibits at the 119th Columbiana County Fair, Aug. 26-30, will be among the largest ever seen.

Seventy - six steers will be shown and will be sold at the sale scheduled in the Coliseum for Friday night. Approximately 100 entries have been made in 4-H Club animal projects, including dairy, swine, sheep and beef. The largest group of 4-H horses and ponies will also be shown at this year's fair, along with overflowing 4-H booths, according to Robert B. Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H work.

Wednesday will be Junior Day. The evening program will be provided by the young people of the county enrolled in 4-H work and other youth groups. The evening grandstand feature will be an old-fashioned variety show by the 4-H members, along with parade of 4-H floats and the coronation of the 4-H king and queen, who will reign over the festivities.

A complete schedule of 4-H activities follows:

Today, Tomorrow Concern Him

Baruch, 94, Says U.S. Problems More Complex

NEW YORK (AP) — Bernard Baruch turned a spry 94 today with an off-handed vow to continue the kind of thinking that brought him fame and fortune and had presidents asking his advice.

"I don't want to dwell on the past," Baruch said at a news conference Tuesday. "Today and tomorrow concern me more than yesterday."

The financier, who had earned a fortune by his 30th birthday, added: "It seems to me that our country's problems, domestic and foreign, are today more complex and difficult than any we have known in the past.

"Yet, despite these problems and perils, the future holds out infinite possibilities and promises for the perfection of democracy and for the improvement of life, not only in this country but in every land."

Standing erect and supported lightly by a cane as he walked in and out of a midtown hotel suite for his news conference, the 6-foot-3 Baruch looked many years younger than his 94.

Except for the time it took to read a brief statement, Baruch lightheartedly traded banter with reporters.

Asked what was the greatest lesson he had learned, Baruch smiled and quipped: "To mind my own business."

He said he seldom goes to Central Park anymore. He gained such fame for passing out advice from a bench there that one was dedicated to him and a plaque bearing his name was attached to it. The same honor was given him in a Washington, D.C., park.

Demonstrations To Be Given For Women At Fair

LISBON — Women who attend Columbiana County's 119th annual fair will be able to relax and get some valuable information, if they go to the basement in the Floral Hall.

Members of the Home Council Township groups will be giving home economics demonstrations, according to Miss Ann Overturf, county extension agent in home economics.

Demonstrations are scheduled Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 11 a.m. 1:30, 2:30, 3:30 and 6:30 p.m. The general subject are foods, ideas to keep children busy, slick tricks for the home and better grooming.

Each will be different, because each township group plans a demonstration under these general subjects. The topics vary from choosing accessories to ceramics.

Between demonstrations, home economics films will be shown and some 4-H members will present the demonstrations they will give at the Ohio State Fair.

Ohio Senators Differ

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's two Democratic senators voted on opposing sides Tuesday as the Senate tabled, and thus killed, a bill which would have suspended the equal time provision of the Communications Act to permit presidential debates. Sen. Frank J. Lausche voted for tabling it. The bill was tabled by a 44-41 vote.

Modern Robin Hoods To Get Their Day In Archery Event

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—Modern Robin Hoods will have their day here Saturday, Aug. 29, as bow and arrow addicts from at least five states stage the Newark Open Regional Archery Tournament.

Among the more than 400 entrants are former national champions Margaret Tillberry of Springfield, Jim Bell of Cambridge, Bill Bednar of Akron and Bill Partin of Mansfield, along with state or regional champions Bob Cohagen of Zanesville, and Ed Lattimer and Ted Schultz, both of Logan.

Most of the archers use bows with a 30 to 40-pound pull, and the tournament at the Flying M Archery Center will feature two contests.

The first is a four-member team run over the Professional Archery Association course, with each firing three arrows at each of 10 targets 18 to 65 yards away.

After the first round the 10 leading teams will shoot for the championship over the same course, with the two-round aggregate score deciding the victor. The individual champion also will be named in the team event, the one coming closest to the perfect 300-point total for two rounds taking the laurels.

The second event, a bow skeet competition, is of special interest to hunters who fire at moving targets. The marksmen will fire from 25 yards at corrugated discs 13 inches in diameter flying through the air some 25 feet above the ground.

Thirty shots are allowed in the race, with the last 25 counting in the scoring. Shooting starts at noon, and publicity chief Walt Cook said some 2,000 spectators will be on hand for the affair.

Leniency For Speeder

LISBON — Robert E. McNamee, 25, of R. D. 4 was given a suspended $5 fine Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald for speeding. He paid $6.50 costs. In an other State Highway Patrol case, Vern E. Osburn, 40, of Akron forfeited a $15 bond on a speedng charge.

Some In Cars Pick Up Girls, He Gets Horse

Gordon F. Buck Jr., 29, picked up a horse.

One minute, Buck was doing 65 miles an hour in his little German Porsche on Highway 101A.

The next, he had a passenger in the front seat — a horse named Gambler.

Buck's car hit Gambler in the rear, flipping him into the seat, said the California Highway Patrol.

Buck swerved off the road. Gambler got out and galloped off.

A veterinarian said Gambler, who lives on a nearby ranch, suffered only a few bruises and slight emotional upset.

Buck's car was dented, the windshield was broken and the inside needed sweeping — but it still runs.

An over-par total score has not won an open golf tournament since last year's USGA National Open at Brookline.

TV Code Chief Promises Reforms

It may not look or sound like it to harrassed TV viewers, but the TV industry is working to reduce the number and loudness of commercials.

Hal Humphrey

Howard Bell, new director of the code authority for the National Association of Broadcasters, has been in a series of conferences with advertising agencies and key broadcasters since taking office last December. His chief purpose, he says, is to impress industry members with the necessity for making TV's commercialization more palatable to the viewers.

-:-

BELL'S principal weapon at the moment is friendly persuasion. He also can punish violators of the code by forcing them to turn in their seals of approval. But, since the seal usually is displayed only just before "the Star-Spangled Banner" signoff at the end of the broadcast day, its loss rarely is noticed by a bleary-eyed viewer.

To eliminate this indifference to the seal by both broadcasters and viewers, Bell has launched a "Zeal for the Seal" campaign.

"Code members must take more pride in displaying the seal," explains Bell. "We are asking them to advertise the seal in their program ads, besides displaying it on the air more conscientiously."

THE CODE AUTHORITY also recently produced 20-second spot commercials of its own for distribution among its 400 station members. These spots point up what viewers don't see on their TV screens as a result of code policing.

If they haven't already, ad agencies are sure to needle Bell for adding to TV's commercial clutter with his own brand of "seal" commercials.

Bell, who is a personable young executive of the more enlightened breed, believes his missionary work eventually will pay off in cleaner and fewer TV commericals.

The code is not window dressing just to keep the government off our backs, as some critics believe," he says firmly. "We honestly are fighting the old 'Let the Buyer Beware' philosophy."

NOT LONG AGO, Bell had a showdown confrontation with a cigarette manufacturer whose TV commercial intimated that a puff of its brand was salutary to one's health.

"When we first suggested a change to the ad agency, its attitude was, 'Thanks, but the manufacturer likes the copy just the way it is.'

"Our next step," says Bell, "was to let them know we would be advising our member broadcasters that the commercial in question was a violation of the code. The objectionable claim was removed."

In a recently amended section of the code, a sponsor is allowed "Multiple product" announcements if integrated within the framework of one announcement. "Piggybacks" (two distinct plugs back-to-back) are counted as two commercials.

TWO "PIGGYBACKS" back-to-back are now a violation, because they are counted as four commercials. Unfortunately, under the code, the line differentiating a "piggyback" from a multiple or "integrated" commercial is thin enough to become almost indistinguishable to bent-eared TV fans.

So far, the code has no section covering overloud commercials, but Bell has a scientific advisory panel studying the situation and says he hopes to have something in the code soon.

The Federal Communications Commission made a pass at controlling number and loudness of commercials on TV. But then the House Representatives passed a bill prohibiting the FCC from doing anything about number. As for volume, the FCC can't seem to decide how loud is loud.

They used to say there's nothing as certain as death and taxes. Now we can add TV commercials to the list.

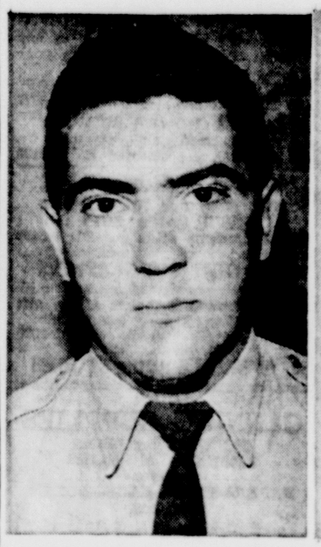
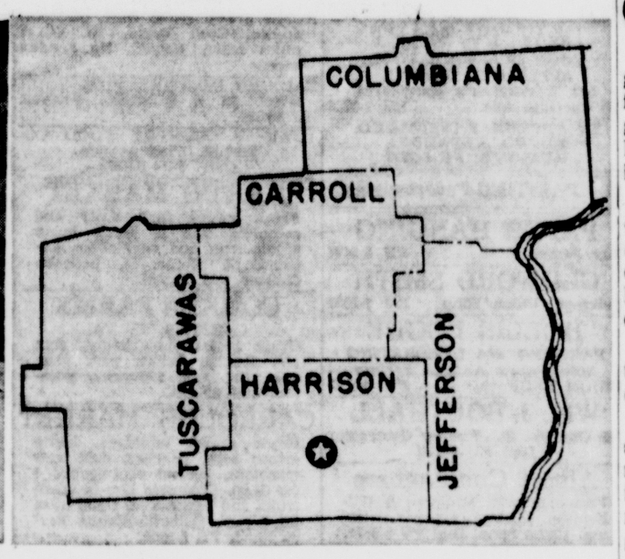
NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION. Here is an artist's conception of the new office building of the Toronto plant of Titanium Metals Corp. of America now under construction south of the main plant entrance. The building, a red brick-stainless steel structure fronting on Route 7, will enable TMCA to consolidate various administrative and engineering functions now operating in scattered locations. It will house plant management, accounting, customer service and production control groups. The TMCA engineering department, now located in a leased building in Toronto, will occupy part of the building which has served as office headquarters since TMCA moved into Toronto in 1956. Additional office and interviewing space will be made available to the industrial relations department in the old office building. According to Earl Neeb, plant manager, expansion of the office facilities is required to meet the needs resulting from a new period of growth. The building is expected to be ready for use by the end of the year.

For Game Protection

County Made Part Of New Unit





Columbiana County becomes a part of a five county Eastern Ohio unit, shown here, in the new program to be started immediately by the Division of Wildlife of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources with James L. Kelley of Lisbon R. D. 4, county game protector assigned a role in the setup.

Robert M. Bailie of Cadiz will be senior conservationist for the area, with his headquarters denoted by the star in Harrison County.

Dale E. Whitesell, division chief, said the new program will result in greatly improved services for Ohio sportsmen and the public.

"This program will establish within the state 20 wildlife management units, four to six counties in size," Whitesell said, "thus removing the county line barrier that has often limited the activities of the Ohio game protectors and the resulting services they can provide the public. Present plans call for each wildlife management unit to be staffed with as many game protectors as there are counties within the unit. Ohio's five wildlife districts will have from three to five such units."

Whitesell pointed out that although there will be a game protector living in each county to provide for local needs and emergencies, his assignment will be for the entire unit.

"The wildlife management units will be supervised and the work scheduled on a local level," Whitesell explained, "by a senior conservationist promoted to the new position from the game protectors' ranks.

The need for the new arrangement has been recognized by the division as the only present solution toward improving service to the public without requiring additional personnel, said Whitesell. In viewing the wildlife activities for each county, he added, it is easily seen that the work load is not equal from one county to another.

Seasonal activities of fieldman also change the work load from one area to another during the year requiring special development of personnel.

"By instituting this new wildlife management unit program, we can better distribute the overall work load by assigning the necessary personnel to any area within the unit to get a specific job done," he said.

8% Hike Cited In Shipments Of Cigarettes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cigarettes have rocketed back from the slump that followed a government report in January linking them to lung cancer and heart disease.

U.S. factories shipped almost 45.2 billion cigarettes in June — an increase of about 8.5 per cent over June 1963, the Internal Revenue Service announced today.

While cigarettes were making their comeback, cigar sales dropped in June.

Small cigars, to which many switched early this year, took a nosedive. Shipments dropped from 190 million in May to 38 million in June. But the June figure was still double that for small cigars in June 1963.

The slump in cigarette sales had set in right after the government committee headed by Surgeon General Luther L. Terry issued its report in January. There was a considerable rebound in April, but June was the first month to show a sizable increase over the corresponding month of 1963.

June's 8.5 per cent increase compares to a normal year-to-year increase of 2 or 3 per cent.

A report issued by the Council for Tobacco Research — U.S.A., said 10 years of tobacco industry-supported studies had produced no laboratory proof of a link between smoking and lung cancer or evidence that smoking contributes significantly to heart and circulatory ailments or stomach ulcers.

Dr. Wendell G. Scott, president of the American Cancer Society, said Tuesday in New York that the report by the industry group was "self-serving and published without regard for the public welfare."

The American Cancer Society has said cigarette smoking is a serious health hazard.

Grand Jury Due Evidence About Stabbing Death

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Clark County prosecutor James Barry said Tuesday night he will take before the grand jury next month evidence collected in the stabbing death of 14-year-old Jessica Minter.

Barry indicated he would seek no specific indictment by the panel.

The prosecutor's announcement followed the filing of a report in common pleas court by coroner Austin Richards in which he labeled the pretty teenager's death a homocide and urged that the investigation be continued.

Jessica's body was found the morning of June 30 in her home in a residential neighborhood northwest of Springfield. She had been stabbed 21 times.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Minter, a divorcee, told police her daughter was alone in the home when she left the house at 9 a.m. for work at a Springfield meat packing firm. Jessica's body was found two hours later by a girl friend who had stopped by to pick her up for a swimming date.

Coach Gus Niarhos of the Kansas City Athletics replaced Yogi Berra as a World Series catcher with the Yankees for one game in 1949.

Guild Strikes Vindicator In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—Youngstown's only daily newspaper faced the possibility today of not publishing for the first time in its history because a strike by the American Newspaper Guild.

The guild struck Tuesday night in a dispute over a contract for outside circulation delivery men. Other unions were expected to honor the picket lines the guild set up at the entrances and loading dock of the Youngstown Vindicator, an afternoon and Sunday paper.

After the paper was struck both sides returned to the bargaining table for more than an hour and then recessed without scheduling another session. A federal mediator joined in the talks. Representatives of the guild and management declined comment on whether any progress had been made toward a settlement.

The guild represents 110 editorial, classified advertising and circulation men. They voted 27 to 5 last May to join the guild.

Two-year contracts for editorial and classified employes were negotiated this past spring.

William Brown, business manager of the Vindicator, expressed surprise over the guild's strike action.

A spokesman for the guild said it struck because the outside delivery men are treated as "second-class employes" and do not enjoy the same wage, benefit and working conditions given other union employes.

A guild official said wages have not yet been discussed and one of the main issues now is management's proposal to eliminate the districts in which any circulation man works and transfer that work to an independent contractor.

OFF THE RECORD

"Getting ready for a ticker-tape parade?"

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Aug. 19, the 232nd day of 1964. There are 134 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1812, the United States frigate Constitution, famed in history as Old Ironsides, defeated the British frigate Guerriere in a battle in the North Atlantic.

On this date:

In 1942, the greatest commando attack in history was made by Allied forces on the Nazi-occupied port of Dieppe, France.

In 1944, the U.S. 3rd Army smashed into the suburbs of Paris.

In 1946, Washington disclosed that a second American transport plane had been forced down by Yugoslav fighter planes over Yugoslavia.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower defended his Republican administration and criticized prophets of depression in a speech in Springfield, Ill.

Five years ago — The Discoverer 6 satellite was successfully launched into orbit from its California base.

One year ago — Some 150,000 British construction workers started a strike for higher pay and a shorter work week.

Odd Facts

New York's thoroughbred racing season will run for 234 days this year, including a 24-day meeting at Saratoga Springs from Aug. 3 through Aug. 30.

The first base hit in New York's Shea Stadium, home of the Mets, was a home run by Pittsburgh left fielder Willie Stargell.

Junior Editors Quiz on BLUE SKY

QUESTION: Why does the sky — as well as a distant mountain — look blue?

ANSWER: Our earth is covered with a dense layer of the precious air we must have in order to breathe. Suspended in this are countless specks of dust and other materials. It is the sunlight, glancing off these, which makes the sky look light; without an atmosphere containing such particles, the sky would appear black as it does in outer space. The white light from the sun holds within it all the colors of the rainbow. But the particles in the air bend or refract this white light and so scatter the rainbow colors. Blue is the color, which because of its particular "wave length," is more widely scattered than the other colors, and this is why the sky appears blue on a sunny day. When you look at something distant, you are looking through air with its widely scattered blue rays, so things far away take on a faint bluish tinge. Since there is always some water vapor in the air, distant things will also look lighter. When there is a great deal of water vapor, as on a cloudy day, this will overcome the blue rays and everything will look gray. On a sunny day, the water vapor merely softens and lightens distant colors, and this, together with the air's blue rays, gives to distant mountains their beautiful smoky blue shades.

FOR YOU TO DO: Jack is holding up a bright green leaf and contrasting it with the different color of the distant mountains, which he knows are covered with the same green leaves. Make the same experiment. If thre is no mountain in your area, use a distant tree to check the color against.
